French Night School—

Ecole Francaise.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and Spanish Languages, intend to open the FRENCH SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, on the 26th instant; and if 3 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to Friend Philip Morris, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street; where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical manner of teaching.

AS I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement.

VENDEE CONSPIRACY

A Dr. WARMER's practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convincing him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medical, venereal or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians, in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility of the womb various cases and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time. As there are particular from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, that may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine prepared at a safe, electrical and expeditious rate, without the trouble and expense of a physician.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Commercial Row, No. 54, below the Marsh-market.

The Freeman's Journal,

FOR THE COUNTRY.

In consequence of repeated applications from different parts of the union, the editor of the Freeman's Journal has been induced to make arrangements for printing a gazette three times in the week, to be entitled The Freeman's Journal, for the Country.

It will commence on the 1st February next on a copper-plate paper, a five dollars per annum payable in advance.

It will contain the whole of the original matter, and the intelligence which appears in the daily Journal, together with the new advertisements.

The advantages resulting from a newspaper of this description, to persons residing at a distance, will be many; a weekly journal containing the news which is in the daily paper, the price is half rate, and the postage is reduced to one half.

Gentlemen wishing to become subscribers, by forwarding a five dollar bank note, and their address, will have the Freeman's Journal, for the Country, sent to them from the 2nd next, by

WILLIAM M'CORKLE,

Walnut street, Philadelphia.

The editors of newspapers throughout the United States, will confer an obligation by inserting the above in their respective gazettes, as often as may be convenient.

Fancy Japanned Furniture.

At No. 3, South Frederick-street, and also at No. 60, North Gay and Frederick-street.

THE subscribers return thanks to their friends and the public for the many favors received, and hope for the many favors to come, and hope to exhibit the same to the subscriber, as far as possible in the way of furniture, from its calculating taste in the way of the professional legal taste in his country can boast. To the gentlemen of the city, it is more than interesting to us to value the question to the judicature of this country. In vain may the young student ever be taught usages of a Boston, or with me a very reason turn over the pages of the several legal journals of the British Parliament, when finding precedents concerning the same cases in the law of the day. But the day comes, that when the talents of the American bar, may far exceed the judgment of the English lawyers, and may far exceed the talents of all unassisted with party, raise precedents entire to the virtue, genius and tastes of a free people.

The subscriber to this will be received by George Keating, at the book store of Samuel Burt, and at the office of the American.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 2d of February last, a negro named JIM, 19 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, square built, black brown complexion, small scar under one of his eyes, and hair on each cheek, the white of his eyes are mixed with a yellowish red, and a good countenance, he has a bairn in one of his legs, which is not perceptible unless he walks back. His dress when he went away was a blue jacket, off the shoulder with grey, longer than common—a blue ditto half worn, a grey fringed pair of breeches, a coarse shirt, white pantaloons and two pair of shoes. He is a bold villain and will change both name and dress, and will endeavor through the means of his master who lives on Lees' Point to pass for a free man, and so don't will enter into any vessel as such.

This is the 3rd time he has run off—He ran away on the 2d of January last, and was lost in Anne Arundel county, Maryland, and I have given a reward of 100 dollars for his apprehension, and reasonable expenses in the night and delivered to me—it in any other case the above reward, and all reasonable expenses on his being delivered to me.

Wm. STENSON.

N. B. All masters of vessels are warned not to let him away.

A CONCORDANCE TO THE BOOKS CALLED

APOCRYPHAL.

The whole digested in an easy and regular method; white paper, with the various significations of other improvements now added, it is considered to be useful than any book of the kind hitherto published.

BRADY & CRUDEN, A. M.

This excellent work having gone into five editions in England, and never yet been printed in America, the publishers are induced to be sure, that among the numerous advocates for creating and studying of the old available writings, within the compass of the United States, they will meet with sufficient encouragement to warrant their undertaking so large a work.—They have accordingly made arrangements for putting it to press early the present year; and as they rely upon the patronage of the readers of the Holy Scriptures, the utmost attention shall be given to furnish them with as correct and accurate a Concordance to the Bible, as the best London copy.

CONDITIONS.

This work will be printed in one quarto volume containing upwards of 1000 pages, on a fine wove paper, and a beautiful, new, American type.

It will be delivered to subscribers, bound in calf, at 10 dollars; well bound in sheep 9 dls. 50 cents; and in boards at 8 dollars 50 cents, and no money required till the completion of the work.

Subscriptions are received in Philadelphia, by the publishers—in Baltimore, by messrs. Vincent & Peter Bonsal, Samuel Butler, James Rice & Co., M. & J. Conrad & Co., John Hagerly, George Hill, Warner & Hanna, and Izzy Proctor, and by all the principal booksellers throughout the United States.

Those who subscribe for ten copies, obtain ten subscribers, and become answerable for the payment, shall be entitled to one copy gratis.

Trial of Samuel Chase, esqr.

THE very liberal Patronage the publishers have received, induces them to reward the work with all expedition—the 1st No. of the Trial is now ready, and will be published early in the next week—it will contain the opening of the Court of Impeachment, with a description of it; the preparatory arguments; Mr. Chase's speech, & his difficulties to put off trial; the system of Mr. Rand's little all of the magistrates, at his commencement and the examination of the witnesses in support of the charges exhibited by the House of Representatives.

It is contemplated in binding the volume to have the trial to proceed in documents, therefore the Articles of Impeachment, the Answer and Plea, and the Evidence, &c. will be bound et cetera.

The publishers pledge themselves to have the work done in a very neat and elegant manner.
