Trial of Samuel Chase, esqr. THE very liberal Patronage the publishers have received, induces them to forward the work with all expedition—the 1st No of the I rial is now at press, and will be published early in the next week-it will contain the opening of the Court of Impeachment, with a description of it; the preparatory arguments; Mr. Chase's speech and affi favit to put off trial; the speech of Mr. Randolph in behalf of the managers, at its commencement and the examination of the witnesses in support of the charges exhibited by the House of Representatives.

It is contemplated in binding the volume to have the trial to precede the documents; therefore the Articles of Impeachment, the Answer and Pleas, and the Exhibits, &c. will be bound at the end

The publishers pledge themselves to have the work finished with that expedition compatible with the importance of it; and being a trial which interests the whole community, it may hereafter be of the greatest utility from its calling Into action the whole force of the professional legal talents this country can boast. To the gentlemen of the bar, 'is more than interesting; 'tis a valuable arquisition to the jurisprudence of this country. In vain may the young student pore over the mutty leaves of a Bracion, or with the utmost attention turn over the pages of all the year books and journals of the British Parliament, without linding precedens doctrine congenial to the times we live in: But the day is not far distant when the talents et the American bar, may sour above the prejudice of monarchical precedents, and by fostering the talents of all unconnected with party, raise presedents suitable to the virtue, genius and liberties of a fice people 20,000 Numbers.

P Not two Blanks to a Prize. The tickets to be sold in Hrlves, at five dolars each The Managers respectfully solicit the aid of the public to accomplish the object of the above Lottery-Considerable exertions for several years having been already made by an association of ladies, for the education of poor orphans of all denominations-Teachers in every part of the city have been paid quarterly for the schooling of children, and in some instances assisted with necessary clothes, from the precarious resources of subscriptions, public and private donations, charity sermons, &c.

The legislature of Maryland have been pleased to grant a lottery to raise a fund upon more stable and permanent principles, for the support of this institution; and the mayor and city council, in sandioning it by an ordinance, have also given a very honorable testimony of their good wishes, by relinquishing the customary tax ... The Managers therefore confidently hope, that the above scheme, as well from the benevolence of its intention, as the principle of ad venture, will be inviting to every citizen, in this or any other part of the United States. Ad. venturers in this lottery, while they feel conscientious and consoling reflection of having thereby contributed their mits to the permanent establishment of a Free School, for the educa tion of poor children, male and female, of every denomination; will also in a pecuniary point of view, experience advantages superior to any other scheme heretofore offered.

For the convenience of purchasers, the managers have thought proper to strike off the tick. ets in halves, leaving it optional with the purchaser to take the whole or half ticket. The managers have given bond for the faithful performance of their trust. Sixty days after the drawing is finished the prizes will be paid, subject to a deduction of 12 1-2 per cent.-if not demanded within 12 months after the drawing is finished, they will be considered as relinquished for the orphans. JOHN COULTER, 39, Market st. F. Point.
