VEREERFUL COMPLAINTS

AS DR. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine venereal or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians with a Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.

As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Cumberland Row, No. 64, below the Marsh-market.

GENTLEMEN, HENRY TRAPNALL, at the last Election, was placed on the return by the disinterested approbation of his friends and well-wishers, and acknowledges, with grateful sensibility, the obligation he is under for their liberality and humanity, exerted in his favor; and he again begs leave to offer himself a candidate for the important Office of SHERIFF of Baltimore county, at the next election to be held for that purpose—especially soliciting the favor and suffrages of the public generally, and also a continuance of that friendly disposition so lately manifested towards him; and he pledges himself, that should he be designated as your choice, he will render that satisfaction compatible with the duties required.

To the Voters of the city and county of Baltimore.

HAVING been encouraged by many of my friends in the city and county, to offer myself as a candidate to be put in nomination for the office of SHERIFF, at the ensuing election, I hope it will not be deemed improper thus early to signify my intention, and to solicit the patronage of my friends generally, and the voters of the city and county at large.

Those who have not a personal knowledge of me, will, on enquiry, find that I have been bred to business, and have been conversant in mercantile transactions from early life—Should my fellow-citizens think proper, at the expiration of the term of the present sheriff, to discharge the important duties attached to that office—My engagements will continue to prevent a personal application to each individual, whose approbation I am ambitious to possess; but if correctness, diligence and every degree of humanity, consistent with the interest due to an indulgent public, are becoming requisites—I hope the want of a personal interview will be no material objection against me.

Trial of Samuel Chase, esqr.

THE very liberal Patronage the publishers have received, induces them to forward the work with all expedition—the 1st No. of the Trial is now at press, and will be published early in the next week—it will contain the opening of the Court of Impeachment, with a description of it; the preparatory arguments; Mr. Chase's speech and affidavit to put off trial; the speech of Mr. Randolph in behalf of the managers, at its commencement and the examination of the witnesses in support of the charges exhibited by the House of Representatives.

It is contemplated in binding the volume to have the trial to precede the documents; therefore the Articles of Impeachment, the Answer and Pleas, and the Exhibits, &c. will be bound at the end.

The publishers pledge themselves to have the work finished with that expedition compatible with the importance of it; and being a trial which interests the whole community, it may hereafter be of the greatest utility from its calling into action the whole force of the professional legal talents this country can boast.

To the gentleman of the bar, his more than interesting; 'tis a valuable acquisition to the jurisprudence of this country. In vain may the young student pore over the mute leaves of a Blackton, or with the utmost attention turn over the pages of all the year books and jurists of the British Parliament, without finding precedent doctrine congenial to the times we live in: But the day is not far distant when the talents of the American bar, may soar above the prejudice of manarchical precedents, and by setting the talents of all united effect with party, more precedents suitable to the virtue, genius and liberties of a free people.

Subscribers to this work will be received by George Keatinge, at the book store of Samuel Butler, and at the office of the American.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 23d of February last a Negro named JIM, 19 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, square built, black brown complexion, a small scar under one of his eyes and had one on each cheek, the white of his eyes are mixed with a yellowish red, and a good countenance he has a hurt in one of his legs, which is not perceivable unless he walks back.

His dress when he went away was a blue baize outside jacket lined with green, longer than common—a blue inside ditto half worn, a grey fearnaught pair of breeches, a coarse shirt, white yarn stockings and two pair of shoes.

He is an artful villain and will change both name and dress, and will endeavor (through the means of his father who lives on Peck's Point) to pass for a free man and no doubt will enter on board some vessel as such.

This is the 5th time he has run off—He ran away the 3d of January, 1801, and was caught in York county, Pennsylvania, and lodged in Little York jail. It he is taken up in Maryland I will pay fifty dollars and reasonable expenses if brought and delivered to me—in any other state the above reward, and all reasonable expenses on his being delivered to

The Managers respectfully solicit the aid of the public to accomplish the object of the above Lottery—Considerable exertions for several years having been already made by an association of ladies, for the education of poor orphans of all denominations—Teachers in every part of the city have been paid quarterly for the schooling of children, and in some instances assisted with necessary clothes, from the precarious resources of subscriptions, public and private donations, charity sermons, &c.

The Legislature of Maryland have been pleased to grant a lottery to raise a fund upon more stable and permanent principles, for the support of this institution; and the mayor and city council, in sanctioning it by an ordinance, have also given a very honorable testimony of their good wishes, by relinquishing the customary tax on the Managers therefore confidently hope, that the above scheme, as well from the benevolence of its intention, as the principle of advantage, will be inviting to every citizen, in this or any other part of the United States. Adventurers in this lottery, while they feel a conscientious and consoling reflection of having thereby contributed their mite to the permanent establishment of a Free School, for the education of poor children, male and female, of every denomination; will also in a pecuniary point of view, experience advantages superior to any other scheme heretofore offered.

For the convenience of purchasers, the managers have thought proper to strike off the tickets in halves, leaving it optional with the purchaser to take the whole or half ticket.

The managers have given bond for the faithful performance of their trust.

Sixty days after the drawing is finished the prizes will be paid, subject to a deduction of 12 1/2 per cent.—if not demanded within 12 months after the drawing is finished, they will be considered as relinquished for the orphans.
