Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living on Fell's Point, the 25th December last, a Negro woman, named ROSA, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, thick lips, and a down look when spoken to. Took with her the following clothing—a new coarse linen shift, a new scarlet flannel petticoat, a new blue cloth outside ditto, a mottled calico gown, without an apron; a blue and white cross bar cotton handkerchief; a pair of grey yarn stockings, a pair of men's shoes, and a small round brown hat. She has been seen frequently skulking about the Point, but as she has relations in Harford county, it is likely she has gone there, as she has been brought from thence to Baltimore several times, when she had run away. Whoever brings her home, or secures her in any jail, so that I get her again, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid.

Horse Stolen! FORTY DOLLARS REWARD. WAS stolen on Monday night, the 25th instant, out of the subscriber's stable, at his place opposite Mr. George Beam's tavern, on the River's town road, a light colored bay HORSE, between 15 and 16 hands high, 7 years old; his hind feet are white up to the fetlock, and one of them much more than the other; the pasture joint of his right fore foot is considerably thicker than the other; has a white strip in the nose, a long neck, small head, and switch tail, and is a very gay looking horse, and has a good deal of the blood of English breed—trots remarkably fast or slow, and has no other faults. On said farm is a large log dwelling house, completely finished, two story high, 5 rooms and 4 fire places—a large log barn, with stables of stone underneath with granary dairy, smelting house, &c. MERCANTILE DAILY ADVERTISER. THE editor is under the necessity of informing the public, that owing to a disappointment arising from a quantity of type not arriving agreeably to expectation, the publication of the Evening Post is again delayed for a few days. It is with regret that he has so long excused the patience of his friends, but he is happy now to say that every preparation has been made, and every thing necessary insured to render this establishment deserving of that patronage which he has already received by a large number of subscribers; and which, in the article of a verbatim, he presumes to anticipate. The patrons of this paper are therefore assured, that the first number will POSITIVELY be issued on Monday the 25th of March. J. COOK & Co.

A CARD. The respective editors of newspapers in the United States, who may be disposed to exchange with the Evening Post, will render an obligation by forwarding their papers as early as possible, in order for the arrangement of our exchange list, so as to insure their receipt of the next number. 100 Dollars Reward. RAN away from the subscriber, last March was twelve months, a negro man named ROBERT, but generally called Bob—he is about 30 years of age, 6 feet high, of a yellowish complexion, with a large scar on his instep, from a burn, with remarkable small legs and thighs, but very large feet; uncommon thick lips, a good set of teeth, and a large head—he passed as a free negro manumitted by the Han's; he was living near Baltimore for near 9 months past, with a free mulatto woman as his wife—they have both moved off towards the neck in the wood-cutting, but supposed if gone further, to be in the Wood-cutting near Joppa. It is likely he will be in Town or at the Point in the holidays to see his acquaintances. No doubt is entertained that he has a forged pass. Whoever will take up the said runaway, and lodge him in any goal, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward. SAM. C. HUNT. Mountpleasant, Baltimore county, december 21 (31)

CRUDEN'S CONCORDANCE. PROPOSALS By Kimber, Conrad & Co. For Publishing by Subscription that Valuable Work, entitled A COMPLETE CONCORDANCE TO THE Holy Scriptures OF THE OLD & NEW TESTAMENT; OR A DICTIONARY & ALPHABETICAL INDEX TO THE BIBLE. Very useful to all Christians who seriously read and study the inspired writings. In two parts—containing, I. The appellative or common words, in so full and large a manner, that any verse may be readily found by looking for any material word in it. In this part the various significations of the principal words are given, by which the true meaning of many passages of Scripture is shown—an account of several Jewish customs and ceremonies is also added, which may serve to illustrate many parts of Scripture. II. Proper names in the Scriptures—To this part is prefixed a table, containing the significations of words in the original languages from which they are derived. To which is added, A CONCORDANCE TO THE BOOKS CALLED APOCRYPHA. The whole digested in an easy and regular method; which, together with the various significations and other improvements now added, renders it more useful than any book of the kind hitherto published. By ALEXANDER CRUDEN, A. M. This excellent work having gone through five editions in England, and never yet printed in America, the publishers are induced to believe, that among the numerous advocates for the reading and study of those invaluable writings, within the compass of the United States, they will meet with sufficient encouragement to warrant their undertaking so large a work. They have accordingly made arrangements for putting it to press early the present year; and as they rely upon the patronage of the readers of the Holy Scriptures, the utmost attention shall be given to furnish them with as correct and handsome an index to the Bible, as the best London copy. CONDITIONS. This work will be printed in one quarto volume containing upwards of 1000 pages, on a fine white paper, and a beautiful, new, American type. It will be delivered to subscribers, bound in calf, at 10 dollars; well bound in sheep 9 dollars 50 cents; and in boards at 8 dollars 50 cents, and no money required till the completion of the work. 20,000 Numbers. Not two Blanks to a Prize. The tickets to be sold in Halves, at five dollars each. The Managers respectfully solicit the aid of the public to accomplish the object of the above Lottery—Considerable exertions for several years having been already made by an association of ladies, for the education of poor orphans of all denominations—Teachers in every part of the city have been paid quarterly for the schooling of children, and in some instances assisted with necessary clothes, from the precarious resources of subscriptions, public and private donations, charity sermons, &c. The legislature of Maryland have been pleased to grant a lottery to raise a fund upon more stable and permanent principles, for the support of this institution; and the mayor and city council, in sanctioning it by an ordinance, have also given a very honorable testimony of their good wishes, by relinquishing the customary tax on the above scheme, as well from the benevolence of its intention, as the principle of adventure, will be inviting to every citizen, in this or any other part of the United States. Adventurers in this lottery, while they feel a conscientious and consulting reflection of having thereby contributed their mite to the permanent establishment of a Free School, for the education of poor children, male and female, of every denomination; will also in a pecuniary point of view, experience advantages superior to any other scheme heretofore offered. For the convenience of purchasers, the managers have thought proper to strike off the tickets in halves, leaving it optional with the purchaser to take the whole or half ticket. The managers have given bond for the faithful performance of their trust. Sixty days after the drawing is finished the prizes will be paid, subject to a deduction of 12 1/2 per cent—If not demanded within 12 months after the drawing is finished, they will be considered as relinquished for the orphans.

Columbia Mills for sale. THE S. MILLS, with the LANDS three or four acres, about 27 acres, will be offered for sale by the subscribers at their Auction room in Baltimore, on MONDAY the 8th of April next, at 10 o'clock. The property is situated on the waters of the Great Annapolis river, county of Maryland, 12 miles from the residence of John Stinson, Esq. and 3 miles from Stinson's Landing, at the head of the water on South-western. The improvements are a decent dwelling house, a mill race, and other outbuildings, an apple orchard, and a variety of peach and cherry trees. The mill is a substantial one, standing about 60 feet by 40, has two pair of excellent French burr stones, and is capable of doing a great deal of business, and is capable of turning the wheels at the present season, and the mill every way calculated for carrying on an extensive business, but in want of repair. Jeremiah Rogers, of the premises, can give further information if required. The purchase of this situation, with the water on the Susquehanna, promises important advantages in the purchase of grain descending that river, as well as in the easy carrying of flour, by water, to Baltimore. The title of the purchase money will be retained in hand, a reasonable credit may be had for the residue, on being satisfactorily engaged. At the same time and place will be sold, A tract of LAND, of about 130 acres, on which is an apple orchard and some small improvements, in a healthy situation, nearly adjoining the residence of Colonel Carvel Hall in Harford county. It is now in the tenure of William Arnold, and belongs to the estate of Alexander W. Davey, deceased. LEMMON & CAMPBELL, auc'rs. march 4

THE Managers of this Lottery flatter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation chosen by the Commissioners appointed for crediting the Market-House, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage, to that part of the city, and to the country in general, and beg leave to recommend it as an object worthy of their encouragement. As the above Scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable Prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two Blanks to a Prize, and all Prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the Lottery is completed, without any deduction, the Managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the Tickets; as may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.
