 TO THE BIBLE.
 Very useful to all christians who seriously read and study the inspired writings. In two parts—containing,
 I. The appellative or common words, in so full and large a manner, that any verse may be readily found by looking for any material word in it.
 II. Proper names in the Scriptures.—To this part is prefixed a table, containing the significant words in the original languages from which they are derived.
 The whole digested in an easy and regular method; which, together with the various explanations and other improvements now added, renders it more useful than any book of the kind hitherto published.
 By ALEXANDER CRUDEN, A. M.
 This excellent work having gone through five editions in England; and never yet been printed in America, the publishers are induced to be lieve, that among the numerous advocates for the reading and study of those invaluable writings, within the compass of the United States, they will meet with sufficient encouragement to warrant their undertaking so large a work.
 They have accordingly made arrangements for printing it to press early in the present year; and as they rely upon the patronage of the readers of the Holy Scriptures, the utmost attention shall be given to furnish them with as correct and handsome an index to the Bible, as the best London copy.

Warm, Cold and Shower BATHS.
 THE subscriber, impressed with a due sense of his obligations to his friends and patrons for the prompt support he received the last sea-his unfeigned thanks to them, hoping his unre-mitted exertions and good intentions will apologize for his lack of ability. His Baths are now more in number, the accommodation much better, and he flatters himself that nothing will be wanting to give general satisfaction.

 The above Baths were in operation yesterday morning, and will continue every Saturday and Sunday morning, from 7 o'clock, until further notice.

 The above Lottery is intended to raise a sum tion heretofore obtained, for building the second Presbyterian Church in this city.

 The laudable purpose to which this money is to be applied, together with the advantages in a pecuniary view, which must appear obvious to adventurers, cannot fail to produce a ready sale of the tickets.
 It is expected the drawing will commence the cient number of tickets are disposed of. All Prizes in this Lottery will be paid, without de-lars each.

 The Managers respectfully solicit the aid of the public to accomplish the object of the above Lottery—Considerable exertions for several years having been already made by an association of ladies, for the education of poor orphans of all denominations—Teachers in every part of the city have been paid quarterly for the schooling of children, and in some instances assisted with necessary clothes, from the precarious resources of subscriptions, public and private donations, charity sermons, &c.
 The legislature of Maryland have been pleased to grant a lottery to raise a fund upon more stable and permanent principles, for the support of this institution; and the mayor and city council, in sanctioning it by an ordinance, have also given a very honorable testimony of their good wishes, by relinquishing the customary tax on the above scheme, as well from the benevolence of its intention, as the principle of advantage, will be inviting to every citizen, in this or any other part of the United States. Adventurers in this lottery, while they feel a conscientious and consoling reflection of having thereby contributed their mite to the permanent establishment of a Free School, for the education of poor children, male and female, of every denomination; will also in a pecuniary point of view, experience advantages superior to any other scheme heretofore offered.
 For the convenience of purchasers, the managers have thought proper to strike off the tickets in halves, leaving it optional with the purchaser to take the whole or half ticket.
 The managers have given bond for the faithful performance of their trust.
 Sixty days after the drawing is finished the prizes will be paid, subject to a deduction of 1 1/2 per cent.—if not demanded within 12 months after the drawing is finished, they will be considered as relinquished for the orphans.
