Twenty Dollars Reward.
ON Thursday, the 14th inst., Mr. JOHN FOWLER was murdered by some of his negroes, near his dwelling at Hawkins's Point, on the river Patuxent; and by the confession of the perpetrators of this horrid act, they threw his body into the river, that when found it might be supposed to have been drowned.—The above reward will be given to any person who may discover the body when it rises, and deliver it to the subscriber, in Baltimore, or if as convenient, to Mr. J. Fowler, in Annapolis. If it should be found impossible to convey it to either place, then it is earnestly requested, if possible, that I may be informed of its being found, previous to its being buried; but if neither wish can be gratified, it is requested that every possible decory should be observed in its interment; and every expense will be cheerfully paid, every treasure generously rewarded, and the benefit gratefully acknowledged, by his sorely distressed relatives.
