To Let, BRICK Warehouse on Cheapside, now occupied by Messrs. B. Green & Co. For terms, apply to them, or TH. W. & JOS. GRIFFITH, Esq. march 14

Clerk Wanted, A YOUNG gentleman who is well acquainted with accounts, and writes a good hand and can produce the most satisfactory recommendations, may hear of a respectable situation, on application to the printers. No. 419

Land for sale, A PART of that very valuable tract of LAND, formerly the property and residence of John Mercer Porter, deceased—situated in Baltimore county, in Back river neck, and about 15 miles from the city—containing 240 acres of strong fertile land, a great part of which is in a high state of cultivation; 14 acres in excellent timothy meadow, and about 20 acres more may be added at a very small expense. The improvements are of wood, lately erected, and such as would suit for farm houses. The plant in wood, which is at least equal to the support of the place, abounds in lofty white oaks, interspersed with hickory. This property will be sold part for cash, and part for credit, or bartered for approved property in the city of Baltimore. It is presumed a purchaser will view the premises, therefore it is unnecessary to give any further description of them. Peregrina Porter, adjacent to the premises, will show them, and treat for the sale thereof—or, if more convenient to purchasers, apply to Wm. C. GOLDSMITH. August 14

Any gentleman in want of a person of this description, will please to address a few lines to W. C. and left with the printers, to which immediate attention will be paid. march 21

A situation Wanted, IN a wholesale or retail store, either in town or country, a young MAN, who would devote the entire of his time for the interest of those who would engage him, and make himself useful in all respects, conforming to the situation engaged in; he understands accounts, and from his knowledge of business, is desirous of himself would prove pleasing to those employing him; if required will give trial gratis, or satisfactory reference. A few lines addressed to X. Y. left at this office, shall be thankfully attended to. march 21

Andrew Koch, Baker, RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally, that he has removed to north Gay street, next door to the Cross Keys Inn, where he has opened a Bake House, and flatters himself, that from his experience in that line of business, he will give general satisfaction, and insure himself a generous patronage. march 20

Wanted a situation, BY a middle aged person who is well acquainted with the wholesale Dry and Wet Goods business, and also the shipping business—he understands book keeping well and can have the best recommendations. A line addressed to A. B. and left at this office, will be immediately attended to. march 19

100 Dollars Reward, RAN away from the subscriber, last March was twelve months, a negro man named ROBERT, but generally called B-b—he is about 20 years of age, 6 feet high, of a yellowish complexion, with a large scar on his instep, from a burn, with remarkable small legs and thighs, but very large feet; in common thick lips, a greater of teeth, & large head—he passed as a free negro manumitted by the Hunt's; he was living near Baltimore for near 9 months past, with a free mulatto woman as his wife—they have both moved of late down the neck to the wood-cutting, but supposed if gone further, to be in the Wood-cutting near Jeppa. It is likely he will be in Town or at this point in the holidays to see his acquaintances. No doubt is entertained but what he has a forged pass. Whoever will take up the said runaway, and lodge him in any jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward. SAM. C. HUNT, Mountpleasant, Baltimore county, December 21 (31)

Baltimore and Frederick TURNPIKE ROAD, THE subscribers being appointed to receive subscriptions, under the act of assembly for incorporating a company for making a turnpike road from Baltimore through Fredericktown to Boonsborough, do hereby give notice, that subscription books will be opened at the office of the Maryland Insurance Company in South street, and at Mr. William Evans's tavern, in Market-street, on Monday, the 1st April, from the hour of 9 until 1 o'clock, and will continue open during the same hours the two following days unless the capital stock should be earlier subscribed. The stock is divided into shares of twenty dollars each, and every person must pay down one dollar on each share at the time of subscribing—not more than twenty-five shares can be subscribed for on the first day by any one person, nor more than fifty on the second day. (Signed) JAMES CAREY, LUKE TIERNAN, GEO. F. WARFIELD, FRN. HOLLINGSWORTH. N. B. Subscription books will also be opened at Frederick, Middle-town and Hagers' town, for shares in the above road, by the commissioners named in the law. February 14

20 Dollars Reward, RAN away from the subscriber, living in Fairfax county, Virginia, a negro man named SIMON, about 45 years of age, 6 feet high, well made, and of a very blackish complexion. He has lost his forehead, and his face is very bumpy. He took with him a grey coating coat with double breast, with overalls of the same; has also a coat of half ticks, double breasted, and long breeches of the same, a pair of double soled country make shoes, nailed all round the bottom, and two coarse shirts, and a hat of good quality, but much worn. I will give the above reward for securing him in any jail, and all reasonable charges paid. Wm. DENEALE, march 21

Columbian Inn—continued, ISAAC CAUSTEN, Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street. To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c. To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a general public, and begs leave to assure those every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation. November 27

Third, At the garrison near Vincennes on the river Wabash, at Fort Massac, New Madrid, Chickasaw Bluffs, Arkansas, Natchez and Fort Adams, and at any place or place where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited in the Mississippi territory, and at any place or places in the Indiana territory south of the 41st degree of north latitude and fifty miles east of the Mississippi river. Fourth, At St. Louis, St. Charles, Kaskaskia, Cahokia, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the territory of Louisiana north of New Madrid, and at any place or places in the Indiana territory within fifty miles east of the Mississippi river and south of the 41st degree of north latitude, Fort Massac excepted. Fifth, At New Orleans, Plaquemines, Point Coupee, Oscherz, Natchitoches, Opelousas, Atchafalpa, Fort Steadler, Fort St. Stephens, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the territory of Orleans, or in the county of Washington in the Mississippi Territory, and at any place or places on the west side of the Mississippi river below Arkansas. Separate proposals will also be received as aforesaid for the supply of all rations, which may be required for the use of the United States, from the 1st day of January 1836, to the 31st day of December of the same year, both days inclusive, within the several states herein after mentioned, viz. Sixth, At Fort Wilkinson, Cockspar Island, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Georgia, and on the Indian boundary between Georgia and the Creek nation. Seventh, At Charleston, Rocky Mount, on the head waters of the Santee, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the states of North and South Carolina. Eighth, At Norfolk, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Virginia. Ninth, At Fort M'Henry, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Maryland and the district of Columbia. Tenth, At Fort M'Blin, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Pennsylvania, east of the river Susquehanna, and within the states of New Jersey, and Delaware. Eleventh, at Pittsburg, Carlisle, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Pennsylvania, west of the river Susquehanna. Twelfth, At Fort Jay, West Point, Albany, Shenandoah, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of New York, Niagara and its dependencies excepted. Thirteenth, At Fort Trumbull, Fort Wolfert, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Connecticut, Rhode Island and Vermont. Fourteenth, At Fort Independence, (Boston harbor) and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Massachusetts, the town of Springfield, and the district of Maine excepted. Fifteenth, At Portsmouth, Portland, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of New Hampshire and the district of Maine. Sixteenth, Proposals will also be received as aforesaid, for the supply of all rations, which may be required by the U. States, for the troops which are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the town of Springfield in the state of Massachusetts, and for the armours and other persons employed in the United States' army at that place, from the 1st day of January 1836 to the 31st day of December in the same year, both days inclusive. A ration to consist of one pound and one quarter of beef, or three quarters of a pound of pork, eighteen ounces of bread or flour, one gill of rum, whiskey or brandy, and at the rate of two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap, and one pound and a half of candles, to every hundred rations. The prices of the several component parts of the ration shall be specified; but the United States reserve the right of making such alterations in the price of the component parts of the ration as shall make the price of each part thereof bear a just proportion to the proposed price of the whole ration. The rations are to be furnished in such quantities, that there shall at all times, during the term of the proposed contract, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimackinac, Detroit and Chicago, for six months in advance, and at each of the other posts on the western waters, for at least three months in advance of good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all and every of the commandants of fortified places or posts, to call for, at seasons when the same can be transported, or at any time in case of urgency, such supplies of like provisions in advance, as in the discretion of the commandant shall be deemed proper. It is understood that the contractor is to be at the expense and risk of issuing the supplies to the troops, and that all losses sustained by the depositions of an enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States, shall be paid by the United States at the price of the articles captured or destroyed as aforesaid, on the deposition of two or more persons of credible characters, and the certificate of a commissioned officer, stating the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed. The privilege is understood to be reserved to the United States of requiring that none of the supplies, which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts, shall be issued until the supplies, which have been or may be furnished under contracts now in force, have been consumed; and that a supply in advance may be always required at any of the fixed posts on the seaboard, or Indian frontiers not exceeding three months. H. DEARBORN, Secretary of War. March 14

Twenty Dollars Reward, ON Thursday, the 14th instant, Mr. JOHN FOWLER was murdered by some of his negroes, near his dwelling at Hawkins Point, on the river Patuxent; and by the confession of the perpetrators of this horrid act, they threw his body into the river, that when found it might be supposed to have been drowned.—The above reward will be given to any person who may discover the body when it lies, and deliver it to the subscriber, in Baltimore, or if as convenient, to Mr. J. Fowler, in Annapolis. If it should be found impossible to convey it to either place, then it is earnestly requested, if possible, that I may be informed of its being found, previous to its being buried; but if neither wish can be gratified, it is requested that every possible decency should be observed in its interment; and every expense will be cheerfully paid, every trouble generously rewarded, and the benefit gratefully acknowledged, by his sorely distressed relatives. BENJAMIN FOWLER, march 20
