District of Maryland, to wit. BE it remembered, that on the 14th day of March, in the 29th year of the independence of the United States of America, Samuel Butler & George Keatinge, of the said district, have deposited in this office, the title of a book, the right whereof they claim as proprietors, in the words following, to wit: "Report of the Trial of the hon. Samuel Chase, one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, before the High Court of Impeachment, composed of the Senate of the United States, for charges exhibited against him by the House of Representatives in the name of themselves and of all the people of the United States, for High Crimes and Misdemeanors; supposed to have been committed by him, with the necessary documents and official papers, from his Impeachment to final acquittal. Taken in short hand by Charles Evans, and the arguments of Counsel, received by them from his manuscript." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books, to the authors or proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned." 100 Dollars Reward. RAN away from the subscriber on the 23d of February last a Negro lad named JIM, 19 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, square built, black brown complexion, a small scar under one of his eyes and had one on each cheek, the white of his eyes are mixed with a yellowish red, and a good countenance; he has a hurt in one of his legs which is not perceivable unless he walks quick. His dress when he went away was a blue baize outside jacket lined with green, longer than common—a blue inside ditto half worn, a grey fearnought pair of breeches, a coarse shirt, white yarn stockings and two pair of shoes. He is an artful villain and will change both name and dress, and will endeavor (through the means of his father who lives on Fell's Point) to pass for a free man and no doubt will enter on board some vessel as such. This is the 5th time he has run off—He ran away the 3d of January 1861, and was caught in York county, Pennsylvania, and lodged in Little York jail. If he is taken up in Maryland I will pay fifty dollars and reasonable expences if brought and delivered to me—if in any other state the above reward, and all reasonable expences on his being delivered to Wm. STENSON. N. B. All masters of vessels are warned not to keep him away. W. S. law
