The complete history of the Civil War in Ireland,

By the Rev. JAMES GORDON,

WILL be published in a few days, by S. Butler, and Pechin & Frailey; and the delivery of said work, to subscribers in the city of Baltimore, will commence next week.

It will form two handsome volumes; price to subscribers 175 cents, to non-subscribers the price will be 2 dollars :-- Of 1500 copics printing, more than 1250 are now subscrib-

The Publishers inform that subscribers will not be received after the present week.

ALTHOUGH the professed object of the Rev. Gordon, in writing his history, was to give, an importial and unbiassed account of the unsuccessful attempt of the Irish to emancipate themselves from their degrading thraldom, yet the imperious calls of self security rendered the full attainment of this desirable object impossible. Living under a despotic government, exasperated by the immense less of blood and treasure expended in the revultion of there brave b t unfortunate sons of freedom, he very well knew, that any one attempting to tell the whole truth, would be fr wned into silence, and the imprudent and luckless author be doomed to add one more to the long list of Irish martyrs. He, therefore, prescribed to himself-certain bounds, beyond which he has not dated to pass; -he has written as impartially as circumstances would permit, but very differently from what he might have done had he penned it in our own free and pepry country.

To remedy this defect, and to supply all the deficient narrative of Gordon, has been the unwearied care of the Publishers, and they are happy to assure the public, that their exercions, they flatter themselves, have been trowned with

The asperces from which they have derived their additional and corrective infor -ation, are various. They have made copious extructs from Mestrs, Hay, Plowden, and C wper's hiztories on the subject and from several proscribes phamphlets, the printing and sale of which L'adered treasonable, as they contain many impastfelly narrated falls, which the government "Misis, ag conceal or misrepresent."

Mailt may be presumed that some readers ma wot be July acquainted with the situation of Ireland, we have, to Illustrate the work, prefixed a short Geographical, Topographical and

Historical description thereof. With these Additions, Corrections and Alterations, the Publishers, will present to their free and enlightened countrymen, Gondon's His-TORY OF THE IRISE REVOLUTION, as the most impartial, faithful and, interesting history on that subject, now extent. In this favoured country only, could such an one be printed i as here, the Liberry of the Press, unfettered by the iditizity product, bower, diffates the lake of truth and imparrial information, throught ut our stoba leude

THAT a Conv ntion of the Medical and Ch rurgi al Faculty of Maryland will commence at Haltimbre o' the first Monday in June. The praditioners of medicine and surgery, in the state of Maryland, are respectfully invited to attend. Those who have now been elected membets of the faculty, will please to signify their wishes to he secretar, or some other member, that they may be admitted at the opening of the convention, and take their seats immediately. Gentlemen who are candidates for permission to practise physic and surgery, in the state of Maryland, will please to attend at the session of the c nvention.

By an unanimous resolution at the last meeting of the faculty, the orator appointed in 1802 to have delivered an oration in 1803, was directed to deliver the same in 1805—indisposition having been deemed a sufficient apology for the non performance of his duty at that time. The orator appointed for 18/15, will, nevertheless, be expected to deliver his oration at the convention in June.

The Cersors of the counties, towns, and of the cities of Baltimore and Annapolis, are earnes ly r quested to report to the convention (through the secretary) the names, places of residence, and dates of the commencement of practice of all the practitioners within their respective jurisdictions. The censors will feel the necessity of such a measure, when they reffect that there are many policensed practitioners infringing the law, and that without the regorous execution of their duty, it must become a sead NATH POTTER, Secty.
