The complete History of the Civil War in Ireland,

By the Rev. JAMES GORDON.

WILL be published in a few days, by S. Butler, and Pechin & Frailey; and the delivery of said work, to subscribers in the city of Baltimore, will commence next week. It will form two hundsome volumes; price to subscribers 173 cente, to non-subscribers the price will be 2 dollars :- Of 1500 copies firinting, more than 1250 are now subscribed for.

The Publishers inform that subscribers will not be received after the present week.

ALTHOUGH the professed object of the Rev. J. Gordon, in writing his history was to give, an impartial and unbiassed account of the unsuccessful attempt of the Irish to emancipate themselves from their degrading thraldom, yet the imperious calls of self security rendered the ful attainment of this desirable objed impossible. Living under a despotic government, exasperated by the immense lass of blood and treasure expended in the re udion of there heave but unfo tunate sens of freedom, he ver well knew, that any one attempting to tell the wbo'e truth, would be fr wned into silence, and the imprudent and luckless author be doomed to add one more to the long list of Irish martyrs. He, therefore, prescribed to himself cer ain bounds, beyond which he has not dared to pass; -he has w itten as impartially as circumstances would permi', but very differen ly from what he might have done had he penned it in our own free and happy country.

To remedy this defect, and to supply all the deficient narrative of Gordon, has been the unwearied care of the Publishers, and they are happy to assure the public, that their exertions, they flatter themselves, have been crowned with

The sources from which they have derived their additional and corrective inforvation, are various. They have made copious ext/ucls fr m Messrs. Hay, Plowden, and Cowper's histories on the subject and from several proscribes phamphlets, the priming and sale of which in Ireland, if discovered, might have been considered treasonable, as they contain many impartially narrated facts, which the government wish to conceal or misrepresent. As it may be presumed, that some readers ma. not be fully acquainted with the situation of Ireland, we have, to illustrate the work: prefixed a short Geographical, Topographical and Historical description thereof. With these Additions, Corrections and Alterations, the Publishers, will present to their free and enlightened countrymen, Gornon's His-TORY OF THE IRISH REVOLUTION, as the mon impartial, faithful and interesting history on that subject, now extant. In this favoured country only, could such an one be printed; as here, the Liberty of the Press, unfettered by the arbitrar hand of power, diffuses the rays of ttuth and impartial information, throughout our happy land.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

CTOLEN on Monday morning last, between D the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, from the stable or the subscribers, at Woodhury Mills, on Jones's Falis, about four miles from Kaltimore a Waggon HORSE. He is a grey Gelding, about 4 years old, in high order, about 15 or 154 hands high. He is a well turned horse, but not a good hack; trots rough has a tolerable long switch tail, and his head more white than his body. The villain who stole him was seen this morning about day light, near Beams's tavern, on the Reister's town turnpike road in company with a black man on a black horse; he then had the blind bridle on the Horse, about half worn, which he took from the stable with the horse, and was riding on a blanket in the place of a saddle We will give Twenty Dollars for the horse, if delivered to us in Baltimore; ir Fifty Dollars for theif and harse, upon conviction.

There is no doubt but the horse is stolen by one of the gang of jockeys who are lurking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horses, to keep a vigilant look-out for these fellows, and endeavor if possible to bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city.
