Fifty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN on Monday morning last, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, from the stable of the subscribers, at Woodbury Mills, on Jones's Falls, about 9 or 10 miles from Baltimore, a Waggon HORSE. He is a grey Gelding, about 4 years old, in high order about 15 or 16 hands high. He is a well trained horse, but not a good hack; trusts rough, has a tolerable long switch tail, and his head more white than his body. He will run who he will, was seen this morning about 10 o'clock, near Beams's tavern, on the Reister's wheel turnpike road in company with a black man on a black horse; he then had the black man on the horse, about half worn, with a hook from the stable with the horse, and was riding in a blanket in the place of a saddle. He will give Twenty Dollars for the horse, if he is found in Baltimore, or Fifty Dollars for help and horse upon condition.

There is no doubt but the horse is stolen by one of the gang of jockeys who are lurking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horses, to keep a vigilant look-out for these fellows, and endeavor, if possible, bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city.

W. MORRIS & W. TYSON, Ellicott's wharf, Baltimore.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED from the subscribers, on Monday the 8th instant, a Stealing man named W. L. He is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, is features, eyes, nose, mouth, large flat nose, thick and prominent lips, and has some freckles on his forehead; is marked with the small pox, particularly on his nose; his hair has been lately cut; his legs and thighs are larger than usual for his size of his body and shoulders. He carries with him a variety of clothing. He is a good waiter, and understands driving a carriage. He was met on the road on Wednesday, the 10th instant, about 8 miles from Baltimore, at which place there is a woman, the property of Mr. J. G. G., whom he has claimed as a wife, and who, in doubt, will endeavor to secure him. He will give the above reward, if he is seen, and will pay all reasonable charges.

ISAAC CAUSTEN

Respectfully to some his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbus Inn, one door above the corner of Howard street in Baltimore at vet.

To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.

To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

Third, At the garrison near Vincennes and the river Wabash, at Fort Massac, New Madrid, Chickasaw Bluffs, Arkansas, Natchez and Fort Adams, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited in the Mississippi territory, except the county of Washington, and at any place or places in the Indiana territory south of the 41st degree of north latitude and fifty miles east of the Mississippi river.

Fourth, At St. Louis, St. Charles, Kaskaskia, Cahokia, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the territory of Louisiana north of New Madrid, and at any place or places in the Indiana territory within fifty miles east of the Mississippi river and south of the 41st degree of north latitude, Fort Massac excepted.

Fifth, At New Orleans, Plaquemine, Point Coupee, Oacheta, Natchez, Opelousas, Attakapa, Fort Stoddert, Fort St. Stephens, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the territory of Orleans, or in the county of Washington in the Mississippi Territory, and at any place or places in the west side of the Mississippi river below Arkansas.

Separate proposals will also be received as aforesaid for the supply of all rations, which may be required for the use of the United States, from the 1st day of January 1866, to the 31st day of December of the same year, both days inclusive, within the several states hereinafter mentioned, viz:

Sixth, At Fort Wilkinson, Cockspur Island, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Georgia, and on the Indian boundary between Georgia and the Creek nation.

Seventh, At Charlotte, N. Rocky Mount, on the head waters of the Santee, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the states of North and South Carolina.

Eighth, At Norfolk, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Virginia.

Ninth, At Fort M'Henry, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Maryland and the district of Columbia.

Tenth, At Fort Mill, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Pennsylvania, east of the river Susquehanna, and within the states of New Jersey, and Delaware.

Eleventh, at Pittsburg, Carlisle, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Pennsylvania, west of the river Susquehanna.

Twelfth, At Fort Jay, West Point, Albany, Shenandoah, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of New York, Niagara and its dependencies, excepted.

Thirteenth, At Fort Trumbull, Fort Wallcut, and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the states of Connecticut, Rhode Island and Vermont.

Fourteenth, At Fort Independence, (Boston harbor) and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Massachusetts, the town of Springfield, and the district of Maine excepted.

Fifteenth, At Portsmouth, Portland and at any place or places, where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of New Hampshire and the district of Maine.

Sixteenth, Proposals will also be received as aforesaid, for the supply of all rations, which may be required by the U. States, for the troops which are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the town of Springfield in the state of Massachusetts, and for the armours & other persons employed in the United States' armoury at that place, from the 1st day of January 1866 to the 31st day of December in the same year, both days inclusive.

A ration to consist of one pound and one quarter of beef, or three quarters of a pound of pork, eighteen ounces of bread or flour, one gill of rum, whiskey or brandy, and at the rate of two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap, and one pound and a half of candles, to every hundred rations. The prices of the several component parts of the ration shall be specified; but the United States reserve the right of making such alterations in the price of the component parts of the ration as shall make the price of each part thereof bear a just proportion to the proposed price of the whole ration. The rations are to be furnished in such quantities, that there shall at all times, during the term of the proposed contract, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimackinac, Detroit and Chicago, for six months in advance; and at each of the other posts on the western waters, for at least three months in advance of good and wholesome provisions if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all and every of the commanders of fortified places or posts, to call for, at seasons when the same can be transported, or at any time in case of urgency, such supplies of like provisions in advance, as in the discretion of the commandant shall be deemed proper.

It is understood that the contractor is to be at the expense and risk of issuing the supplies to the troops, and that all losses sustained by the deprivations of an enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States, shall be paid by the United States at the price of the articles captured or destroyed as aforesaid, on the deposition of two or more persons of creditable characters, and the certificate of a commissioned officer, stating the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.

The privilege is understood to be reserved to the United States of requiring that none of the supplies, which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts, shall be issued until the supplies, which have been or may be furnished under contracts now in force, have been consumed; and that a supply in advance may be always required at any of the fixed posts on the seaboard, or Indian frontiers not exceeding three months.
