PROPOSALS FOR PRINTING BY SUBSCRIPTION, LECTURES ON THEOLOGY. BY CHARLE, NISBET. D. D.

Late President of Dickmon College, in Carlise, Pennsylvania. To which will be prefixed AN ACCOUNT OF THE LIFE AND CHA-RACTER OF THE AUTHOR By the Rev Dr. SAMUEL MILLER, Of the city of New York.

To those who are acquainted with the charader of the late Dr. Niebet, no recommenda tion will be necessary to engage their patsonage of the publication above proposed. It is well known, that his profound crudition his eminent talents, and his fervent piery, rendered him, for many years, a distinguished light in the church of Scotland, and a principal leader of what is there denominated the Orthodox Purty His high reputation induced the trustees of Dickinson college to call him from the conspicuous and honorable sphere of usefulness which he occupied in his native country, to take the presidency of that institution. This important station he held for near twenty years, with a degree of honor to himself, and of advantage to the seminary under his care, which those who have attended to the progress of American literature well know. The Ledures now proprosed to be published, were delivered at ickinson college, to a select class of theological students, who heard them with so much gratifitation and instruction, that manuscript copies were eagerly sought after, and by a few ob tained; and application was made to the venerable president, on his death bed, for his consent to have the whole laid before the public in a more correct and perfect form.

Although the body of theological instruction, now offered to the world, was not originally formed with a view to publication, and altho' it did not réceive the advantage of the author's last cortections ; yet, unless his friends have formed a very partial and erroneous estimate of the work, it will be found to contain a rich fund of theological learning, which will abundantle repay the reader, and form a lasting monument to the honor of the author.

CTOLKN on Monday morning last, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, from the stable of the subscribers, at Woodbury Mills, on Jones's Falls, about four miles from Baltimore a Waggon HORSE. He is a grey Gelding, about 4 years old, in high order, about 15 or 154 hands high. He is a well turned horse, but not a good hack; trots rough, has a tolerable long switch tail, and his head more white than his body. The villain who stole him was seen this morning about day light, near Beams's tavern, on the Reister's town tumpike road, in company with a black man on a black horse; he then had the blind bridle on the Horse, about half worn, which he took from the stable with the horse, and was riding on a blanket in the place of a saddle. We will give Twenty Dollars for the horse, if delivered to us in Baltimore; or Fifty Dollers for theif and horre, upon convidion.

There is no doubt but the horse is stolen by one of the gang of jockeys who are imking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horses, to keep a vigilant look-out for these fellows, and endeavor if possible to bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city.
