PROPOSALS

FOR PRINTING BY SUB- RIPTION, LECTURES ON THECLOGY. BYCH RLE NISBET, D. D. Late President of Dickmon College, in Carlise, Pennsylvania.

To which will be prefixed AN ACCOUNT OF THE LIFE AND CHA RACTER OF THE AUTHOR. By the Rev Dr. SAMUEL MILLER,

Of the city of New York. "-To those who are acquainted with the character of the late Dr. Misbet, no recommendation will be necessary to engage their pationage of he publication above proposed. It is well known, that his profound erudition his eminent talcits, and his fervent piery, rendered him for many rears, a distinguished light in the church of acouland, and a principal leads of what is there denominated the Ortholox Party His high reputation induced the trustees of Dickinson college to call him from the conspicuous and honorable sphere of usefulness which he occupied in his native country, to take the presidency of that institution. This important station he held for near twenty years, with a degree of honor to himself, and of advantage to the seminary under his care, which those who have at ended to the progress of American literature well know. The Ledures now propresed to be published, were delivered at inson college, to a select class of theological students, who heard them with so much gratifi cation and instruction, that manuscript copies were eagerly sought after, and by a few ob tained; and application was made to the venerable president, on his death bed, for his consent to have the whole laid before the public in a more corred and perfed form.

Aitho igh the body of theological instruction, now offered to the world, was not originally formed with a view to publication, and aitho' it did not receive the advantage of the author's last cortections; yet, unless his friends have formed a very partial and erroneous estimate of the work, it will be found to contain a rich fund of theological learning, which will abundantl repay the reader, and form a lasting monument to the honor of the author
