New Millinery.
Mrs. Andrews & Mrs. Blythe
HAVE this day received from their correspondents in New York and Philadelphia, a variety of the first and most fashionable assortment of the different articles in their line from the late London arrivals in both cities, which they hope to receive to-morrow or next day.
Mrs. A. will arrive this day at Philadelphia and will forward by each succeeding conveyance the different articles in their line, until their assortment is fully completed. Their mode of dealing together with consignments of the first quality, enables them to sell at as low prices as any other in this city. The present polite and punctual attention of their correspondents, without a price, leaves them full propriety to say, that whatever new goods arrive at either of the above mentioned places may be had shortly of them.
N. B. Country merchants, and other dealers in their line, will be supplied at the Philadelphia prices at their store, No. 71, Market-street, a few doors west of Calvert-street.

Old Gum Academy.
THE public are respectfully informed that the above institution for the Latin Greek, English and French languages, and the sciences, is now opened for the reception of 15 pupils, which, in order to do strict justice, will on no account exceed that number. Teachers of integrity and abilities, as assistants in the different branches of education, will be constantly employed. Those parents, who may please to patronize this Seminary, may rely on the greatest attention to morals, person and diet; every pains taken to equal their most sanguine expectations; and no effort or expense omitted, to render this system of education complete and perfect. The salutary situation of this school is well known and established. Terms made known on application to the subscriber.
F. HOLLAND.
may 2

Land for sale.
A PART of that very valuable tract of LAND, formerly the property and residence of John Mercer Porter, deceased—situated in Baltimore county, in Back river neck, and about 14 miles from the city—containing 240 acres of strong fertile land, a great part of which is in a high state of cultivation; 14 acres in excellent timothy meadow, and about 20 acres more may be added at a very small expense. The improvements are of wood, lately graded, and such as would suit for farm houses. The part in wood, which is at least equal to the support of the place, abounds in lofty white oaks, interspersed with hickory. This property will be sold part for cash, and part on credit, or bartered for approved property in the city of Baltimore. It is presumed a purchaser will view the premises, therefore it is unnecessary to give any further description of them. Peregrine Porter, adjacent to the premises, will show them, and treat for the sale thereof—Or, if more convenient to purchasers, apply to
Wm. C GOULDSMITH,
August 4

Thirty Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY on Thursday morning last, from the subscriber, living on Baltimore street, an apprentice boy named SAMUEL CHERINGTON, aged 19 years, by trade a shoemaker; had a down look, low voice, rough skin, which when closely examined, appears like fish scales; apt to be much confused when spoken to; has light brown scrappy hair, which is sometimes tied; stoop shouldered; about 5 feet 6 inches high. His supposed home is lurking about the city, or to go to Georgetown or Alexandria, or may intend going to sea. The above reward will be paid for apprehending said apprentice, so that I get him again, and reasonable expenses paid if he is home.
WM. DUNCAN,
N. B. Masters of vessels and others are forbidden as their party not to harbor or carry off said boy.
W. D.
April 27.
