PROPOSALS FOR PRINTI G BY SUBSCRIPTION. LECTURES ON THEGLOGY.

BYCHARLES NISBET D. D. Late President of Dickinson College, in Carlise, Pennselvania.

To which will be prefixed AN ACCOUNT OF THE LIFE AND CHA RACTER OF THE AUTHOR. By the Rev. Dr SAMUEL MILLER.

Of the city of New York. To those who are acquainted with he chareder of the late Dr. Misbet, no recommenda. tion will be necessary to engage their patsonage of the publicati n above proposed. It is well known, that his profound erudicion, his eminent talents, and his fervent piery, renderes him for many years, a or tinguished light in the church of Scotland, and a principal leader of what is there nenominated the Q-thodox Party His high reputation induced the vusices of Dickinson college to call him from the comp cuous and honorable sphere of usefulness which he occupied in his native country, to take the presidency of that institution. This important station he held for next twenty years, with a degree of honor to himself, and of advantage to the seminary under his care, which tho e who have at ender to the progress of American literature well know. The Lectures new propr seu to ne ph'slished, w re delivered a lick inson college, to a select clas of theological students, who heard them with so much gratification and instruction, that manuscript copies were eagerly sought atter, and by a few ob. tained; and application was made to the venera'le president, on his death bed, tor his consent to have the whole laid beture the public in a more correct and perfect fim.

Although the body of the I gical instruction, now offered to the world, was not originally formed with a view to publication, and altho' it did not receive the advantage of the author's fast cortédions ; yet, unless his friends have formed a very partial and erronecus estimate of the work, it will be fo nel to contain a rich fund of theological learning, which will abundantl repay the reader, and torra a lasting monument 23 the honor of the author

CONDITIONS. I. The work will be comprised in six odayo vo-Iumes, of atous 500 pages each; and will be put to press as soon as a subscription offers sufficient to defray the expence of publicati-

He is a well turned horse, but not a good hack; trots rough, has a tole able long switch tail, and his head more white than his body. The villain who stole him was seen this morning about day light, near Beams's tavern, on the Reister's town turnpike road, in compan, with a black man on a black horse; he then had the blind bridle on the Horse, about half worn, which he took from the stable with the horse, and was riding on a blanket in the place of a saddle We will give Twenty Dollars for the horse, if dalivered to us in Baltimore; or Fifty Dollars for theif and hurse, upon conviction. There is no doubt but the horse is stolen by ne of the gang of jockeys who are lurking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horses, to keep a vigilant look-out for these fellows, and endeavor it possible to bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city.
