CTOLEN on Monday morning last, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, from the stable of the subscribers, at Woodbury Mills, on Jones's Falls, about sour miles from Baltimore a Waggon HORSE. He is a grey Gelding, about 4 years old, in high order, about 15 or 154 hands high. He is a well turned horse, but not a good hack; trots rough, has a tolerable long switch tail, and his head more white than his body. The villain who stole him was seen this morning about day light, near Beams's tavern, on the Reister's town tumpike road, in company with a black man on a black herse; he then had the blind bridle on the Horse, about half worn, which he took from the stable with the Lorse, and was riding on a blanker in the place of a saddle. We will live Twenty Dollars for the horse, if delivered to us in Baltimor , or Fifty Dollars for theif and horse, upon conviction.

There is no doubt but the horse is stelen by ! one of the gang of jockeys who are lurking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horses, to keep a vigilant look-out for these follows, and endeaver it possible to bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city.
