CTOL N on Mo day m ruing last, between the kours of 2 and 4 o'clock, from the stable of the subscribers, at Woodnury Mills, on Jones's Falls, about four miles from Haltimore a Waggon HOHSE. He is a grey Gelding, about 4 years old, in high order, atv.ut 15 or 15; hanus high. He is a well turned norse, but not a good hack; trots sough, has a tolerable long switch tail, and his head more white than his body. The villain who stole him was seen this morning about day light, near Heams's tavern, on the Reis er's town turnpike road, in company with a black man on a black horse; he then had the blum bridle on the Horse, about half worn, which he took from the stable with the horse, and'was ridu.g on a blanker in the place of a saddle we will give I went; Dollars for the horse, if delivered to us in Baltimore; or Frity Dollars for their and horse, upon conviction.

There is no coupt but the n rie is stolen by one of the gang of Jocksys who are lurking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horzes, to keep a vigitant look-out for these fellows, and endeavor if possible to bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city. .
