The Subscriber
HAVING entered into the necessary security, and obtained license as a Commission and Exchange Broker, respectfully begs leave to offer his services to the Merchants, Traders, and public in general, in this city.—Having exercised the office of an insurance broker for many years in the City of London, and been principal assistant to the late Mr. De Block and Samuel Street, esq. in the adjustment of average, losses and insurances, for the last five years, and still continues to do in the same capacity for Mr. Street—he humbly conceives himself perfectly qualified to undertake all the various duties of a general broker. He will buy and sell Tobacco, procure freight for vessels, buy and sell all manner of public stock, obtain money on good paper at the most reasonable rate and at the shortest notice.—The public may safely rely that in this execution of all business committed to his charge, the strictest accuracy and dispatch shall be observed.—For the present he will keep his office in the room over that occupied by Samuel Street, esq. corner of Gay and Water street, immediately opposite to the custom house.
VAL HAYLEY.

Merchant's Coffee-House.
THE subscriber having rented that well known Room of Mr. James Bryden, purposes carrying it on in the usual manner, in addition to which he has opened correspondence in the principal ports of the continent, for the purpose of receiving early intelligence, and will in future receive regular files of the different European and West India Gazettes, Prices Currents and Periodical Works of note.
An institution of this kind being found indispensible in so large and commercially increasing a city as Baltimore, renders it needless to expatiate on the usefulness of it, and the well known liberality of its merchants in supporting it gives him flattering hopes of success.
J. S. ESCAYVILLE.
The Book will be opened for subscription on 1st June.
