TUESDAY, MAY 21 1855.

By the politeness of a friend we are indebted for a file of Kingston papers received by the ship May, captain Anderson. The contents, if interesting, shall be laid before our readers to-morrow.

We are indebted to the politeness of our commercial friends for files of Paris and Bordeaux papers to the 29th March.
They are in the hands of a translator and may perhaps furnish a few articles for the readers of the American.

The real majority, says the Egis, for governor Strong is about 650. And there is no choice, by the people, of lieutenant-governor.

The ship Welf, captain Adam, from London for Baltimore, was spoken in lat 43, long 45, out 50 days, all well.

The Thomas Jefferson, Loring, from Alexandria, has arrived at Boston.

The ship Favorite, Barry, hence, has arrived at Charleston after a passage of 14 days.

Extract of a letter from a respectable gentleman in Jamaica, to another in this city, dated April 22, 1855.

"I enclose is a price current. I need not mention to you that the trade of the United States in American bottoms to the island flows on the 21st day of May next, contrary to the wishes of the planters and the inhabitants in general; but the governor and council are deaf to their entreaties. I cannot the American commerce will suffer greatly by the conduct of the admiralty court in this place, for if the court will condemn the British ships of war and cruisers, will not fail in a plea for sending them on, but I am in hopes an early stop will be put to these unjust proceedings.

Extract of a letter from Boston to the editor of the N Y Mercantile Advertiser, dated May 5th.

"The day arrived the brig Little James, captain Hutchins, in 73 days from the Downs. His tedious passage has been occasioned by bad weather and head winds. During 36 hours he puffed through numerous islands of ice to contiguous to each other as to impede his falling and to render dangerous the navigation of his vessel. Spoke nothing.
"Below, brig Pallas, Lupton, 30 days from Martinique, released from quarantine.
In lat. 32, 20, long. 65, 20 spoke four Fancy, from Baltimore, for Martinique.
May 9th, 25 leagues east of Cape Cod, spoke brig Star, Ropes, from Boston for Santo Domingo.
"At quarantine, brig Betty, Goddard, Martinique, 23 days; Henry, Hulon, Trinidad 27; sch'r Neutrality, Sprague, Bonavista 27."
