BALTI ORE DISPENSARY. A Centributor to the above institution, begs leave to recommend Doct ARCHD. 1.02.SFY as a proper person to fill the station about to be vacated by the relignation of Dr. Petter. To a regular and felentific medical education, this gentleman adds nach experimental knowledge and I be here, it elected, sviil give general latisfaction to those concerned.

Cantain Williams, armved at Boston on the 15th ult. from 1 . h v, informs, that i Mr. JEROME PONAPRIE, and lady arrived there in a vessel from Baltimore, two days pr vious to his departure.

The following selections haven been made from our J. maica papers, recived by the Mary:

KINGSTON, (Jam.) April 22.

The calainity impending over our heads, by the shutting the ports against the importation of American provisions, on the 21st of the approaching month, cannot be locked to without horror and ditmay. To the interested clamors of a few individuals, situated on the barren and inhospitable shores of Nova Scotta, and to the gross unfrepresentations of their upholders in Great Britain, thousands of lives may fall a sacrifice. and the colonies eventually be plunged in ruin. Of the incomp sency of the illand, aided by all the effor soi the parent state (in time of war) to impply its numerous popu' tim with providous, even at an ex raveg in price post ve es have adorded fatel preofs yet, wit increased numbers ! and die it ithed means, we re now to be leit to the mercy of men, who, however all grain us their avaries, have neither capital, credit, un o'her power whatever l to provide for our wants. We neve witheffed a scene of geetter confusion than what was occalioned by i the impressment of horses on Friday, or a public m afure marked by more general dissust. It is an incontestible fact that three times the number of cattle wanted. would have been cheerfully volunteered had timely notice been given; where then was the policy, we had almost faid decency, of a proceeding so coercive and detrimen tal to a considerable number of respectable injubitants.

> Surry Militia Head Quarters, April 19, 1805.

G. O. SURRY DISTRICT.

The orders of the commander in chief are as follows, viz.

 The arrival of a British squadron of shine of war at Port Royal, and a reinforcement of troops, having rendered the continuance of martial law no longer necessary, the commander in chief takes this opportunity of expressing his sincere thanks to lieutenant general Mitchell, lieutenant general Taylor, and major general Kerr, for the able atfi-tance which they have afforded him, by their effectial service in the command of their respective districts.

"His excellency desires that the commanding officers of the corps of militia throughout the iffand will accept his best thanks, for their zeal and attention during the period of mortial law, and that they will also communicate the same to the officers, non commillioned officers, and privates, under their command.

"The commander in chief has no doubt that, if the enemy had made any attempt on the island, and further exertions of the militia had been called for, they would have continued to do their duty upon every occasion in the most exemplary manner "

In communicating these orders lieut. general Taylor cannot but add, that he has had the highest sa isfaction in witnessing the electity and unremitting exertions of the officers and men whom he has had the long to command, and he requests that they will accept his warmest thanks also upor the occasion.

ST. JAGO DK LA VIGA, April 20. The honorable house of Assembly having finished the hufines of the Session, the house was prorogued this afternoon.

The committee to enquire into the natore of tie intercourse between this Island and America made their report resterday, recommending a memorial to be fent to his honor the lieutenant governor, flating the pernicious consequences of interrupting fuch intercourse, and praying his honor to epen our ports for fix months longer, or until his majesty's pleasure be known The memorial was presented this afternoon, but without success. his kenor would not comply, because he had no instructions from his majesty's ministers. We pray that Al mighty Providence may avert the dire cala mities which we dread will ensue from a perseverance in this measure!

MONEY.

A PERSON, not immediately engaged in business, and having a few hundred dollars by him, would be glad to employ them in any manner where he could find his interest concerned -he would have no objection to join some one in a speculation in a small shipment to the West Indiez, and from having some knowledge of these parts, and correspondence there, could probably point out a market, and articles, where some advantage might be made. The intent of the advertiser is merely to employ a small sum where he can derive a benefit from it. Any one inclined to apply to this seriously, will address a line for W W. to be left at this office, with name and abode, which will be attended to and an interview appointed.
