Captain Picket, arrived at Charleston, from Guadaloupe, informs, that an American vessel had arrived there the day before he sailed, the captain of which menioned his having spoken the Rochefort signideon 5 days before, in lat. 28, bound for France.

The British (Cork) West India fleet had a very narrow escape from the French fauadron in the West Indies. This sleet had on board between 3 and 4000 troops. and an immense supply of plantation stores, for Jamaica; and paised St. Lucie the same day the French did, when bound to Saint Demingo. The French passed in the foreneon, and the English in the afternoon; and both fleets were feen at one and the same time at St Lucie.

We are informed that the following acc dents happened on Oneida Lake, on Monday last, April 22. As three boats were crossing the lake, a sudden squall of wind came on, which immediately upfet one of them, and all the hands on board, three in number, were drowned; their names were David Graham, John Linsley. and a Mr Gi'more. The second boat commanded, and we believe owned by Mr. John Giaham, drifted, on shore, after 54 barrels of pot ash and 50 barrels of flour had been thrown overboard. The other boat struck a shoal where it hung 6 hours, when it was relieved by the affist. ance of apother boat. [Utica Gas.]

On Sunday last the body of a drowned man was found in the river at Van Heesen's island, in this corporation. The coconer from this city found it to be that of a person 40 and 50 years old; short in slatute, dreffed in a failor jacket and trowfers, apparently a long while in the water, and probably had been nearly bald before he name was discovered, and no proper y tobacco 2, soap 10 cents, candles 22, while about him, though an old pocket book was in his packet. Madson Bec.
