Forty Dollars Reward.
I LEFT the subscriber's, on Easter Sunday, a negro man named JACOB, 36 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, of a light complexion, stout and well built. The only distinguishing marks which I can now recollect, are the loss of a fore tooth, a tolerable wide mouth, wearing upon his countenance a general, but simple smile. Had on when he went away, a pair of cloth overalls, of a drab colour, a round jacket of the same, a pair of white yarn stockings, and a felt hat; all of which were nearly new. The night of his departure, he was seen crossing the Patuxent, at the Governor's bridge, on his way, as he said, to see his father, then at major Brodgen's, in Anne Arundel; since then, I have heard nothing of him. He is unhappily attached to spirituous liquors. Whoever shall apprehend the said negro and accuse him, so that I may get him again, shall receive the above reward.

As the above fellow has taken with him a number of clothes, it is not necessary to describe his dress, as it is probable he may change it.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.
A S Dr. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine ever used or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the best physicians both in Europe and America. Conscience of the venereal poisons and disability thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
 Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.
 N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Cumberland Row, No. 64, below the North-market.
