Proposals FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSRITTION. As ORIGIS . WORK,

P. TITLED. THE AMERICAN DRAWING MAGAZINE;

A COMPLETE SYSTEM OF DRAWING, Adapted to the use of all persons who would become accompatible tin this branch of cducat. ..., by which they may be instructed without the am of a teacher, and also, become acqual end with the first rudin nu of print-Er Jouin Eck-Trin. Late I in ter den Statutt, ti the Erry of Pruisia, and now Fales or of Drawing to the Academy of time to in 12 description.

CONDITIONS.

ing, so de me and architefture

First. The work shall se purished in numbers, esch number containing the ive engravings | or to or etchings, thirteen inches by ten, three of which shall be coloused The whole work with be completed in twelve numbers, and the numters shall be published at intervals not greater than three months each.

SECOND, The pri. 2 to sal scribers will be two del'ara a number, to ha paid on activity. To n n-subscribers the price will be two dellars and fitty cents -- l'ne necessary explanations and and instructions will be given in the early progress of the work.

THE liberal encouragement which is given to all attempts for the cultivation of the arts and sciences in this country, induces the artist to present the above plan to the consideration of the pe lie Alis immediale object in this publication will be to establish and exemplify sinh rules and principles in the art of Drawing, as shall emable any person to chiain a proficiency therein without any other assistance. The work else will be found eminently useful in all dezwing ser cole, particularly where the teacher is en occupied with the theoretical par s.f the subjest, as to be abridged in the time which should be devoted for the practical improvement of his pupils

To the American public it will be unnecessary, for the success of a work like this, to offer any remarks on the importance and usefulness of the subject of which it trestes. That public is well aware, that the art of drawing is intimately connected with all other of the me arts, and that an acquaintance with it is ees n'ial to the painter, the sculptor, and the archites.

As a source of amusement, and as forming a brench of palie education, the art of drawing will ever be cultivated when true taste and polished manners shall prevail. The display of skill for a perpetuation of the remembrance of orjects which are dear, to us, must ever award gratification to a fealing mind; and there is parkaps no more lively pleasure than that which is exp rienced by a successful exhibition of the besuties of nature by the hand of art

To the tatte and judge ent of a polished community, the artist proposes to offer the testimonials of his skill. Should that these and judgment approve of his plan, and afford encouragement for his exertions, it will be the highest reward to which his ambition can aspire To every person convertant with works of this nature, and acquainted with the expences of their publication, it will be evident that no motives of pecuniary amolument can influence him to make these proposals. His must favorable calculations permit him only to expect a remuneration of the expense, and a very limited reward for his trouble.

. Subscriptions will be received by WARNER & HAMMA, No. 37, Market-street, Baltimore; and by the principal booksellers in the United States.
