African Church and School.
TO THE CITIZENS OF BALTIMORE AND OTHERS.
WE, the subscribers, Trustees of the Methodist African Church in the city of Baltimore, in behalf of our brethren of color, take the liberty of addressing you upon a subject in which the unfortunate African race is deeply concerned. It is known to all, that they have long suffered under the influence of ignorance, and of vice, an inveterate contamination. The African Methodists of this city, being much interested for the present and rising generation, and believing that information, through the medium of education and the preaching of the gospel, would tend much to the peace, happiness, and real benefit of society, a few years past purchased the African school house for a place of worship and a school for the people of color. The purchase money, though large in amount, is fully discharged and paid. They have also lately purchased a piece of ground for the burial of the dead.
The Lord has prospered their endeavors to promote the information and happiness of their brethren; but their use is now to call to contain the congregation which attends. Desirous of being more extensively useful, and stimulated by the encouraging assurances of support from their white friends and others, they are anxious to enlarge the church; but from the late great advance they have made in the payment for the church, and the debt contracted for the burial ground, they feel unable to effect the object of their wishes alone, and therefore solicit the assistance of all who are interested in the civilization and welfare of the present and succeeding generations of the African race.—Confidently hoping their well meant endeavors will cordially meet the warmest approbation and generous assistance of their fellow citizens. The committee appointed for that purpose will wait on them for the testimony of their approbation.
Mr. John Hagerty has kindly accepted of the trusteeship; and Messrs. Emanuel Kent, James McCannan, and Isaac Burnstone, have consented to assist with their advice and attention in making the proposed alterations. Under their direction the public may rely all monies received will be carefully appropriated for the uses intended.—Trusting in the direction and superintendence of a kind over-ruling Providence, it is hoped your donations will be seen in the improvement and happiness of the present and future generations.
