THAT Excellent accommodations STAND, In South Howard street, running west on said street, and extending a 20 feet paved and, now it is up for a Tavern. The new building contains about four stories, 4 large rooms, and a large hall, with sufficient barracks, a wide passage, a large chamber staircase, 8 rooms, a large dining room, a back building, entrance, commanding a garden, all neatly finished; there is also a convenient Bath, and washing room, a complete new brick stable, with stalls for about 30 horses, and a paved yard large enough to admit carriages, &c.

For situation, air, water, and many other advantages, the standard of luxury in the either form of a Tavern, or a private dwelling, is a large object. The price to be agreed upon providing the western part of Baltimore, will be a particular benefit to the above premises.

To an approved tenant, well qualified to keep a regular house of entertainment, the terms will be made easy, and immediate possession given. Application to be made.

Fifty Dollars Reward,

FOR apprehending, and causing to any jail in the continent, so that I return again, George J. M. S., a slave aged about thirty one years, he is a black man, dark brown complexion, dark eyes, with a high forehead, a small black beard, and a very large nose, he is about five feet six inches high, weighing about 150 lbs. He is a good swearer, and has a very bad name.

He is now in the service of Harry Butler (a white man) at the age of 21 years. It may be well worth examining him as he is a negro with a very large nose, and a very bad name.
