

IN COUNCIL,

Annapolis, May 16, 1865.

Ordered, That the act to provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this State, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals, be published twice in each week, for the space of three months in the Maryland Gazette at Annapolis; the American Telegraph and the Federal Gazette at Baltimore; and the National Intelligencer at Washington; and the Republican Advocate and Baltimore paper at Frederick Town; the Greenback at Hagerstown, and in Smith's and Cowan's paper at Easton.

By order, NINIAN PINNEY, Clerk.

AN ACT

To provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this State, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals.

It is enacted by the general assembly of Maryland, That this State shall be divided into six judicial districts in manner and form following, to wit: St. Mary's, Charles and Prince George's counties, shall be the first district; Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties, shall be the second district; Calvert, Anne Arundel and Montgomery counties, shall be the third district; Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties, shall be the fourth district; Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, shall be the fifth district; Baltimore and Harford counties shall be the sixth district; and there shall be appointed, for each of the said judicial districts, three persons of integrity and sound legal knowledge, residents of the State of Maryland, who shall previous to and during their acting as judges, reside in the district for which they shall respectively be appointed, one of whom shall be styled in the commission chief judge, and the other two associate judges, of the district for which they shall be appointed; and the chief judge, together with the two associate judges, shall compose the county courts in each respective district; and each judge shall hold his commission during good behavior, removable for malfeasance or non-compliance in a court of law, or shall be removed by the Governor, upon the address of the general assembly, provided that two thirds of all the members of each house concur in such address; and the county courts, so as aforesaid established, shall have, hold and exercise, in the several counties of this State, all and every the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, which the county courts of this State now have, use and exercise, and which shall be hereafter prescribed by law; and the said county courts shall be held by this act shall respectively hold their sessions in the several counties at such times and places as the law shall direct and appoint, and the salaries of the said judges shall not be diminished during the period of their continuance in office.

It is enacted, That in any suit or action at law, hereafter to be commenced in any county court of this State, the parties thereto, upon suggestion in writing by either of the parties thereto, supported by affidavit of one or more of the parties, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county court of the county where such suit or action is dependent, shall and may order and direct the record of their proceedings in such suit or action to be transmitted to the judges of any county court within the district for trial, and the judges of such county court, to whom the said record shall be transmitted, shall hear and determine the same in like manner as if such suit or action had been originally instituted therein; provided, nevertheless, that such suggestion shall be made as aforesaid before the expiration of the term in which the suit or action may be tried in the said county court; and provided also, that such further remedy may be provided by law in the premises, as the legislature shall from time to time direct and enact.

It is enacted, That if any party interested or indicted in any of the county courts of this State, shall suggest in writing to the court in which such prosecution is depending, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same in like manner as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein; provided, that such further and other remedy may be provided by law in the premises as the legislature may direct and enact.

It is enacted, That if the attorney-general or the prosecutor for the State, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the State cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein.

It is enacted, That if the attorney-general or the prosecutor for the State, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the State cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein.

It is enacted, That if the attorney-general or the prosecutor for the State, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the State cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein.

It is enacted, That if the attorney-general or the prosecutor for the State, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the State cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein.

It is enacted, That if the attorney-general or the prosecutor for the State, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the State cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein.

tion had been originally instituted therein. And be it enacted, That there shall be a court of appeals, and the same shall be composed of the chief judges of the several judicial districts of the State, which said court of appeals shall hold, use and exercise, all and singular the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, heretofore held, used and exercised by the court of appeals of this State, and also the appellate jurisdiction heretofore used and exercised by the general court; and the said court of appeals shall be established, shall sit on the western and eastern floors for transacting and determining the business of the respective floors, at such times and places as the future legislature of this State shall direct and appoint, and any three of the said judges of the court of appeals shall form a quorum to hear and decide in all cases pending in said court; and the judge who has given a decision in any case in the county court, shall withdraw from the bench upon the deciding of the same case before the court of appeals; and the judges of the court of appeals may appoint the clerks of said court for the western and eastern floors respectively, who shall hold their appointments during good behavior, removable only for malfeasance or conviction in a court of law; and in case of death, resignation, disqualification, or removal out of the State, or from their respective floors, or either of the said clerks in the vacation of the said court, the Governor, with the advice of the council, may appoint and commission a fit and proper person to such vacant office, to hold the same until the next meeting of the said court; and all laws passed after this act shall take effect, shall be recorded in the office of the court of appeals of the western floor.

VI. And be it enacted, That all and every part of the constitution and form of government which relates to the court of appeals and the general court, or the judges thereof, or that is in any manner repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby repealed, abrogated and annulled, upon the confirmation hereof; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the removal of the clerks of the respective county courts being in commission at the time of the passing of this act, in any other mode or manner than that prescribed by the constitution and form of government.

VII. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after a new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alterations and amendments of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall continue and be valid as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Approved May 14 1865. Dawson

Scheme of a Lottery,

Authorized by the General Assembly of Maryland at their last session.

For Building a Market-House

IN THE WESTERN END OF THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

Table with 3 columns: Prize, Amount, and Sum raised. Includes entries for 1st, 2nd, 3rd prizes and various smaller prizes.

THE Managers of this Lottery flatter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation of the Market House, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage, to that part of the city, and to the country in general, and be a source of great benefit to the State.

As the above Scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable Prizes it contains, and there is no considerable loss than two Weeks to a Prize and all Prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the Lottery is completed without any deduction, the Managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the Tickets, and may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.

Such Prizes as shall not be demanded within six months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the Market House.

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be necessary to inform them, that the Managers have given bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of 20,000 dollars, for the due performance of the trust.

CHRISTOPHER JOHNSTON, EDWARD FINLEY, DANIEL LAMMOT, JOHN KENNEDY.

Tickets may be had of the above Managers, Also of Messrs. John Schultz, H. & J. Conrad & Co. George Hill, and James Rice.

And by such other persons as may be hereafter appointed. February d12-2aw

For Sale by Auction,

SEELY MILLS, with 200 acres of land and 1/2 improvements thereon, being 8 miles from Baltimore, and about half a mile from the road leading to the city of Washington. The mill is capable of manufacturing 50,000 bushels of wheat annually, to the best advantage, having water carriage to the spot, which renders the property very valuable, and has produced from 4 to 500 dollars a year, clear of all expenses. The buildings are good, and the situation beautiful, and the farm productive, being well adapted to the use of plaster of Paris, and from the present appearance a good crop in the ground. There are about 100 acres of cleared land, the remainder well covered with thriving young timber, which is a great acquisition to the property, so near water carriage. The property will be exposed at public sale on the premises, on third day, the 18th of the present month (if fair, if not the next fair day) the sale to commence at ten o'clock. Terms of sale, one fourth of the purchase money in cash, one fourth in three, six and nine months—the other half in five equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, and on the last payment being made, an indisputable title will be given. Immediately after will be sold, all the moveable property belonging to said mills, on a liberal credit, consisting of two sloops suitable for the business of carrying wheat and flour to and from said mills. One will carry 650 and the other 850 bushels. Also, four barrels and staves, hogs, cattle, hogs, farming utensils, household and kitchen furniture, with a number of other articles.
