

NEW YORK, June 24. Captain Selby, of the Flag Flotation, arrived yesterday at our wharves...

At the time the ship Thurston left Guadaloupe, the French fleet remained at Martinique...

The London intelligence by St. David's eastern mail is two days later than that received by the Ardent from Greenock...

CHARLESTON, June 14. Extract of a letter from Charleston, dated June 11, 1855.

I have nothing more important to communicate to you, than the pleasing intelligence of the safe arrival of our cargo...

The following narration was handed to me by Capt. Bach, of the barque Mary, which arrived in this day's mail...

Monday, 21st May, 1855. A vessel sailed from Moran Bay at 10 o'clock in the forenoon...

We have been happily conversing with following by a gentleman of the name of Anthony...

Also an American ship from Jamaica, bound to Norfolk, with rum, carried her into Batavia and sold her supposed cargo...

19th June, off Port Matich, in Cuba, was boarded by a British ship of war. The same day, the Pan of Motuzies bearing S. E. saw a ship of war... and immediately discharged it. Here the bullet went through the back of Col. Sotridge, who expired about 24 hours after...

On the 11th inst. S. P. P. ... On the 11th inst. S. P. P. ...

The American schooner William and Mary, captured by the British ship of war...

Wm. S. ... We have been happily conversing with following by a gentleman of the name of Anthony...

Also an American ship from Jamaica, bound to Norfolk, with rum, carried her into Batavia and sold her supposed cargo...

19th June, off Port Matich, in Cuba, was boarded by a British ship of war. The same day, the Pan of Motuzies bearing S. E. saw a ship of war...

19th June, off Charleston, was boarded by a French armed schooner and traded positively.

The American schooner Courier, condemned vessel and cargo.

The American brig John and James, of Charleston, taken under Bonair, condemned vessel and cargo.

The ship Benjamin, of Norfolk, taken by the French and carried into the bay of Pondy...

which appertains to the good of our fellow-creatures, without view to fee or reward...

The American schooner Little Jacob, from Curacao, captured by the British ship of war...

The American schooner William and Mary, captured by the British ship of war...

Wm. S. ... We have been happily conversing with following by a gentleman of the name of Anthony...

Also an American ship from Jamaica, bound to Norfolk, with rum, carried her into Batavia and sold her supposed cargo...

19th June, off Port Matich, in Cuba, was boarded by a British ship of war. The same day, the Pan of Motuzies bearing S. E. saw a ship of war...

19th June, off Charleston, was boarded by a French armed schooner and traded positively.

The American schooner Courier, condemned vessel and cargo.

The American brig John and James, of Charleston, taken under Bonair, condemned vessel and cargo.

The ship Benjamin, of Norfolk, taken by the French and carried into the bay of Pondy...

which appertains to the good of our fellow-creatures, without view to fee or reward...

The American schooner Little Jacob, from Curacao, captured by the British ship of war...

The American schooner William and Mary, captured by the British ship of war...

Wm. S. ... We have been happily conversing with following by a gentleman of the name of Anthony...

Also an American ship from Jamaica, bound to Norfolk, with rum, carried her into Batavia and sold her supposed cargo...

19th June, off Port Matich, in Cuba, was boarded by a British ship of war. The same day, the Pan of Motuzies bearing S. E. saw a ship of war...

19th June, off Charleston, was boarded by a French armed schooner and traded positively.

The American schooner Courier, condemned vessel and cargo.

The American brig John and James, of Charleston, taken under Bonair, condemned vessel and cargo.

The ship Benjamin, of Norfolk, taken by the French and carried into the bay of Pondy...

Original Article. A gay and handsome young Miller was living in a pretty large and genteel company...

The following extraordinary and successful event lately happened at a village in the neighbourhood of Alington...

The managers of the Baltimore General Dispensary, in notice to their fellow citizens...

Extract of a letter from M. Talleyrand to his Excellency Mr. Livingston, late American Minister at Paris...

PARIS, April, 1855. I have thought it would be particularly agreeable to you...

This rare and valuable collection, which Mr. Livingston brings with him, consists of 24 vols. folio of Prints...

At a meeting of the Contributors to the Baltimore General Dispensary, the 21st inst., at James Bryden's...

Rev. JOSEPH G. J. BEND, Rev. JAMES INGLIS, Rev. FRANCIS BEESTON, Doct. JOHN CRAWFORD, Mr. WILLIAM WILSON, EMANUEL KENT, BALTZER STEFFER, ISAAC BURNESTON, WILLIAM GWYNN, PHILIP E. THOMAS, LEVIN HALL, ANDREW ELLICOTT, Junr.

Who met last evening and made choice of The Rev. JOSEPH G. J. BEND, President, ANDREW ELLICOTT, Junr. Secretary, PHILIP E. THOMAS, Treasurer, JOHN BACON, Apothecary. June 25, 1855.

American.

THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1855.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.