

A dwarf BULL,
To be seen at No. 14, Market Space,
Iron Alley.

THE above is the smallest ever seen in America. He is 2 feet 9 inches high; 6 feet 9 inches around the body; and 10 feet from the tip of his nose to the end of his tail. I am informed the breed are excellent for milk.

He is allowed by those who have seen him to be at least a curiosity of the kind as ever was seen in America.

Admission only 12 cents.
July 25.

A Remarkable COW
To be seen at Mrs. John Barber's, No. 55, Market space.

THIS animal was taken wild in the northern part of the state of New Hampshire, and is supposed to be part moose. It has Six Legs, four of which resemble those of ordinary cattle, and are used for walking; the other two rise out of the fore shoulders in an erect posture, and can be folded upon the back, where there is a hollow which will hold two quarts of water. One of these legs is large and perfect, having the hoof complete; the other is smaller, and has only half of the hoof.

Visitors will be gratified, at the same time, with music on the hand organ, accompanied with the shepherd's reel.

Also to be seen there,
Its Calf,
Which is equally remarkable for the same Phenomena. Price of admittance 12 cents.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.
Dr. WARRER'S practice has secured a very extensive public and private daily experience convinces him of the necessity of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine venereal or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with ease and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the venereal passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.

As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Mysterious venereal and irregular may have their medicine prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the excruciating pain of drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. W. has removed from Cumberland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover street, opposite the Rev. Mr. Ottenbacher, near the Dutch church.

IN COUNCIL,
Annapolis, May 16, 1855.

Ordered, That the act to provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals be published twice in each week, for the space of three months in the Maryland Gazette at Annapolis; the American, Telegraph and the Federal Gazette at Baltimore; the National Intelligencer; the Republican Advocate and Bartgis's paper at Frederick Town; Greaves's paper at Hagers Town, and in Smith's and Conant's paper at Easton.

By order,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk.

AN ACT
To provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals.

BE it enacted by the general assembly of Maryland, That this state shall be divided into six judicial districts in manner and form following, to wit: St. Mary's, Charles and Prince George's counties, shall be the first district; Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties, shall be the second district; Calvert, Anne Arundel and Montgomery counties, shall be the third district; Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties, shall be the fourth district; Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, shall be the fifth district; Baltimore and Harford counties shall be the sixth district; and there shall be appointed, for each of the said judicial districts, three persons of integrity and sound legal knowledge, residents of the state of Maryland, who shall previous to and during their acting as judges, reside in the district for which they shall respectively be appointed, one of whom shall be styled in the commission chief judge, and the other two associate judges, of the district for which they shall be appointed; and the chief judge, together with the two associate judges, shall compose the county courts in each respective district; and each judge shall hold his commission during good behavior, removable for misbehavior on conviction in a court of law, or shall be removed by the governor, upon the address of the general assembly, provided that two thirds of all the members of each house concur in such address; and the county courts, so as aforesaid established, shall have, hold and exercise, in the several counties of this state, all and every the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, which the county courts of this state now have, use and exercise, and which shall be hereafter prescribed by law; and the said county courts established by this act shall respectively hold their sessions in the several counties at such times and places as the legislature shall direct and appoint, and the salaries of the said judges shall not be diminished during the period of their continuance in office.

And be it enacted, That in any suit or action at law hereafter to be commenced or instituted in any county court of this state, the judges thereof, upon suggestion in writing by either of the parties thereto, supported by affidavit or other proper evidence, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county court of the county where such suit or action is depending, shall and may order and direct the record of their proceedings in such suit or action to be transmitted to the judges of any county court within the district for trial, and the judges of such county court, to whom the said record shall be transmitted, shall hear and determine the same in like manner as if such suit or action had been originally instituted therein; provided, nevertheless, that such suggestion shall be made as aforesaid before or during the term in which the issue or issues may be joined in the said suit or action; and provided also, that such further remedy may be provided by law, in the premises, as the legislature shall from time to time direct and enact.

And be it enacted, That if any party presented or included in any of the county courts of this state, shall suggest in writing to the court in which such prosecution is depending, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such adjoining county court shall hear and determine the same in the same manner as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein; provided, that such further and other remedy may be provided by law in the premises as the legislature may direct and enact.

And be it enacted, That if the attorney-general or the prosecutor for the state, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the same cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein.

And be it enacted, That there shall be a court of appeals, and the same shall be composed of the chief judges of the several judicial districts of the state, which said court of appeals shall hold, use and exercise, all and singular the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, heretofore held, used and exercised by the court of appeals of this state, and also the appellate jurisdiction heretofore used and exercised by the general court; and the said court of appeals hereby established, shall sit on the western and eastern shores for transacting and determining the business of the respective shires, at such times and places as the future legislature of this state shall direct and appoint, and any three of the said judges of the court of appeals shall form a quorum to hear and decide in all cases pending in said court; and the judge who has given a decision in any case in the county court, shall withdraw from the bench upon the deciding of the same on the bench of the court of appeals; and the judges of the court of appeals may appoint the clerks of said court for the western and eastern shores respectively, who shall hold their appointments during good behavior, removable only for misbehavior on conviction in a court of law; and in case of death, resignation, disqualification, or removal out of the state, or from their respective shires, of either of the said clerks in the vacation of the said court, the governor, with the advice of the council, may appoint and commission a fit and proper person to such vacant office, to hold the same until the next meeting of the said court; and all laws passed after this act shall take effect, shall be recorded in the office of the court of appeals of the western shore.

And be it enacted, That all and every part of the constitution and form of government which relate to the court of appeals and the trial of facts, or the judges thereof, or that in any manner repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and the same be hereby repealed, annulled and void, upon the confirmation hereof; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to annul or the removal of the clerks of the respective county courts being in commission at the time of the passing of this act, in any of or more or manner than that prescribed by the constitution and form of government.

And be it enacted, That the act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next session of the general assembly, after the next election, and the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and confirmed, and shall continue and be valid, as part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing in the said constitution and form of government to the contrary, notwithstanding.
