posite Mr. Woodens tavern, containing near 40 acres, on which are erected two frame dwelling houses, one and a half stories high, a good large barn and stabling, with an elegant spring-house, and as good water as any in the county. There are about 12 acres of excellent woodland; 8 or 9 acres, with apple, peach, cherry and other fruit trees; and about 22 acres of meadow and the remainder in timothy, clover and oats.

Twenty Dollars Reward, RANAWAY on the 4th inst. from the Subscriber, living in Gunpowder Neck, Harford county, a negro woman, named C-NER, 17 or 18 years of age, about 5 feet high, very black, short made; had on and took with her—One tow linen petticoat, one striped linen petticoat and jacket, one white muslin petticoat and jacket, one white muslin dress, white cotton stockings, a pair of slippers, a round black hat half worn. Whoever takes up said negro and secures her in any jail so that I may get her again, shall have 10 dollars if taken in Harford county and the above reward if out of the county, besides all reasonable charges paid by me.
ELIZABETH DEBRULER,

Fifty Dollars Reward,
FOR apprehending and securing in any jail on the continent, a negro man named negro JAMES, a slave, aged about twenty-one or two years; he is stout and large bodied, nearly six feet high, dark brown complexion, small eyes, with long big feet; he lisps a little in his articulation, particularly when he is in liquor, of which he is very fond. It is supposed he will assume the name of Harry Butler, and will show a short copy of the proceedings of the orphans' court of Anne Arundel county, in the state of Maryland, signed John Gasaway, register, stating (in substance) that Harry Butler (or Harry Butler) was bound apprentice to Henry Ridgely, until he arrived at the age of 21 years; it may be observed by examining the said short copy, that the term of apprenticeship expired on the 25th of December last. Harry Butler the real person mentioned in the proceedings of the orphans' court, is now in Baltimore, and has in one of his arms an inveterate and incurable white swelling, of long standing, which makes the diseased arm much larger than the other, whereas negro James is sound in both of his arms. If James should be apprehended in the city of Baltimore, or the counties of Anne Arundel, or Baltimore, twenty five dollars will be the reward. It is expected he will go to Lancaster, Little York or Carlisle, in Pennsylvania. He was seen at Canton races on Tuesday last.
Notice may be given by letter addressed to me to the care of M'Donald and Ridgely, merchants in Baltimore.

FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL.
Ecole Francoise.
NOTICE is hereby given, That I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and English Languages, intend to open the FRENCH SCHOOL, in my commodious dwelling, on the 26th instant, and if 43 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical manner of Teaching.
As I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement.

Land for Sale.
On WEDNESDAY,
The 20th day of July next, will be sold on the premises, in Harford county, within 5 miles of John Stumps mill, A PLANTATION containing 235 acres of valuable land, about 100 of which are cleared. On the land is a good dwelling house and barn, and the best saw mill in Harford county, with every thing necessary thereto. It lies within 6 miles of tide water, on the Susquehanna river.
Also will be sold, A number of horses, oxen & other cattle. The terms of sale will be one third cash, one third in nine and the last in twelve months. An indisputable title will be given to the purchaser.
RICHARD SWENEY

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.
Dr. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vented or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with ease and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.
—As there are persons from various countries who personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines so prepared that a safe, effectual and expedient cure may be effected, without the least restriction in diet or diet.
N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Cumberland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover street, opposite the Rev.
Mr. Otterbein's, near the Dutch church.

To Let,
A Neat two story brick dwelling HOUSE,

Twenty Dollars Reward.
RANAWAY from the subscriber, on the morning of the 22nd inst. a negro WOMAN, named LUCY, of a very dark yellow complexion, about twenty five years old, and rather a neat figure, speaks timidly and sometimes inclining to be sulky; has a large timid eye, and frequently her jaws tied up for the tooth ache.
She used to wear at home a dark blue striped linen jacket and petticoat; but having carried off all her clothes, she will likely change her dress. It is thought she is lurking about some gentleman's place in the vicinity of Baltimore, having many friends and acquaintances in the country. Any constable or other person bringing her home, shall have the above reward, and on giving information where she can be had, shall have half the amount. She was formerly the property of Mr. Thomas Rutter, who sold her to Colonel Clemm, and by me purchased of him.

IN COUNCIL,
Annapolis, May 16, 1805.
Ordered, That the act to provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals be published twice in each week, for the space of three months in the Maryland Gazette at Annapolis; the American, Telegraphe and the Federal Gazette at Baltimore; the National Intelligencer; the Republican Advocate and Hartgis's paper at Frederick Town; Creeves's paper at Hagers Town, and in Smith's and Cowan's paper at Easton.
By order,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk.

AN ACT
To provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and forms of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals.

BE it enacted by the general assembly of Maryland, That this state shall be divided into six judicial districts in manner and form following, to wit: St.
Mary's, Charles and Prince George's counties, shall be the first district; Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties, shall be the second district; Calvert, Anne Arundel and Montgomery counties, shall be the third district; Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties, shall be the fourth district; Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, shall be the fifth district; Baltimore and Harford counties shall be the sixth district; and there shall be appointed, for each of the said judicial districts, three persons of integrity and sound legal knowledge, resident of the state of Maryland, who shall previous to and during their sitting as judges, reside in the district for which they shall respectively be appointed, one of whom shall be styled in the commission chief judge, and the other two associate judges, of the district for which they shall be appointed; and the chief judge, together with the two associate judges, shall compose the county courts in each respective district; and each judge shall hold his commission during good behavior, removable only for misbehavior on conviction in a court of law, or shall be removed by the governor, upon the address of the general assembly, provided that two thirds of all the members of each house concur in such address; and the county courts, so as aforesaid established, shall have, hold and exercise, in the several counties of this state, all and every the powers, authorities and jurisdiction, which the county courts of this state now have, use and exercise, and which shall be hereafter prescribed by law; and the said county courts established by this act shall respectively hold their sessions in the several counties at such times and places as the legislature shall direct and appoint, and the salaries of the said judges shall not be diminished during the period of their continuance in office.

II. And be it enacted, That in any suit or action at law hereafter to be commenced or instituted in any county court of this state, the judges thereof, upon suggestion in writing by either of the parties thereto, supported by affidavit or other proper evidence, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county court of the county where such suit or action is depending, shall and may order and direct the record of their proceedings in such suit or action to be transmitted to the judges of any county court within the district for trial, and the judges of such county court, to whom the said record shall be transmitted, shall hear and determine the same in like manner as if such suit or action had been originally instituted therein; provided, nevertheless, that such suggestion shall be made as aforesaid before or during the term in which the issue or issues may be joined in the said suit or action; and provided also, that such further remedy may be provided by law, in the premises, as the legislature shall from time to time direct and enact.

III. And be it enacted, That if any party prevented or hindered in any of the county courts of this state, shall suggest in writing to the court in which such prosecution is depending, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such adjoining county court shall hear and determine the same, in the same manner as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein; provided, that such further and other remedy may be provided by law in the premises as the legislature may direct and enact.

IV. And be it enacted, That if the attorney-general or the prosecutor for the state, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the state cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein

V. And be it enacted, That there shall be a court of appeals, and the same shall be composed of the chief judges of the several judicial districts of the state, which said court of appeals shall hold, use and exercise, all and singular the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, heretofore held, used and exercised by the court of appeals of this state, and also the appellate jurisdiction heretofore used and exercised by the general court; and the said court of appeals hereby established, shall sit at the western and eastern shores for transacting and determining the business of the respective shores, at such times and places as the future legislature of this state shall direct and appoint; and any three of the said judges of the court of appeals shall form a quorum to hear and decide in all cases pending in said court; and the judge who has given a decision in any case in the county court shall withdraw from the bench upon the deciding of the same case before the court of appeals; and the judges of the court of appeals may appoint the clerks of said court for the western and eastern shores respectively, who shall hold their appointments during good behavior, removable only for misbehavior on conviction in a court of law; and in case of death, resignation, disqualification, or removal out of the state, or from their respective shores, of either of the said clerks in the vacation of the said court, the governor, with the advice of the council, may appoint and commission a fit and proper person to such vacant office, to hold the same until the next meeting of the said court; and all laws passed after this act shall take effect, shall be recorded in the office of the court of appeals of the western shore.

VI. And be it enacted, That all and every part of the constitution and form of government which relates to the court of appeals and the general court, or the judges thereof, or that is in any manner repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby repealed, abrogated and annulled, upon the confirmation hereof; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to authorize the removal of the clerks of the respective county courts being in commission at the time of the passing of this act, in any other mode or manner than that prescribed by the constitution and form of government.

VII. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directly, that in such case this act, and the alterations and amendments of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and confirmed, and shall continue and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing in the said constitution and form of government to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Columbian Inn—continued.
ISAAC CAUSTEN
Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.
To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.
To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

On the 2d of this month, I GAVE my indentured servant, Christian Suhr, a permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.

200 Dollars Reward.
WILLIAM M. NUTT, late of Kingston, South West Point, state of Tennessee, has kept store for the subscriber between 3 & 4 years in the following places, viz. Enocille, Rogersville and lastly at Kingston, s. w. Point, all in the aforesaid state of Tennessee. In the last of the above mentioned places, he, the said Wm. M. Nutt, contracted debts to a very large amount, from time to time, and report says he never paid any of those debts so contracted.
The subscriber has lately heard that, early last spring, he, the aforesaid W. M. Nutt, took a large number of horses to the state of Georgia, in order that he might raise money to make remittance to the subscriber—Prior to his going off with said horses he sold all the goods he possibly could, out of the store, both wet and dry, left a young man in the store to superintend the sale of the rest of the goods in said store, but an attachment was immediately used and executed on said goods, by Mr. Jas. Campbell, of Knoxville, Merchant, (late of Baltimore) to whom he was indebted. Since he went to Georgia he has not been heard of. A description of him is therefore necessary. He is about 26 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high; sleender made, has a stoop when walking, when sitting looks downwards, has a bashful countenance, dark pale complexion, dark brown eyes, heavy eye brows, dark brown hair cut short; when he goes to speak he moves his head to the right side, gives a kind of a reluctant smile, but seldom speaks unless when spoken to, by birth an Irishman—by religious profession a Presbyterian and seems at all times serious, pious, devout and sincere.
I, the subscriber, do offer a reward of one hundred dollars, to any person or persons who will secure the aforesaid Wm. M. Nutt, in any jail of the United States; that so I may get him, and the above reward if brought to me, to this city.
THOMAS HANNA,
N. B. All printers to the Southward & Westward of this city would confer a great kindness by inserting this, one time at least, in their respective papers, so that a notorious culprit may be detected.
