IN COUNCIL;

Annapolis, May 16, 18c5-Ordered, That the act to provide for the trial of sacts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals be published twice in each week, for the space of three months in the Maryland Gezette at Annapolis; the American, Telegraphe and the Federal Gazette at Raltimore; the National Intelligencer; the Republican Advocate and Bartgis's paper at Frederick Town; Greeves's paper at Hagers Town, and in Smith's and Cowan's paper at Easton.

By order, NINIALI PINKNEY, Clerk.

AN ACT

To provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, charge and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and forms of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals.

DE it enacted by the general assembly of D Maryland, That this state shall be divided into six judicial districts in manner and form following, to wit: St. Mary's, Charles and Frince George's counties, shall be the first district; Cæcil, Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties, shall be the second district; Ca!vert, Anne Arundel and Montgomery counties, shall be the third district; Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties, shall be the fourth districk; Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, shall be the fifth district; Baltimore and Harford counties shall be the sixth district; and there shall be appointed, for each of the said judicial district, three persons of inteutity and sound legal knowledge, residents of the state of Maryland, who sha'l previous to and during their acting as judges, reside in the district for which they shall respectively be appointed, one of whom shall be styled in the commission chief judge, and the other two associate judges, of the district for which they shall be appointed; and the chief judge, together with the two associate judges, shall compose the county courts in each respective district; and each judge shall hold his commission during good behavior, removable for mistaliavior on conviction in a court of law, or shall be removed by the governor, upon the address of the general assembly, provided that two thirds of all the memberach ach house concur in such address; and the county courts, so as aforesaid esemblished, shall have, hold and exercise, in The several counties of this state, all and every the powers, authorities and invisdictions, which the county courts of this state now have, use and exercise, and which shall be hereafter prescribed by law; and the said county courts established by this act shall respectively hold their sessions in the several counties at such times and places as the legislature shall direct and appoint, and the salaries of the said judges shall not be diminished during the period of their continuance in

II. And be it enacted, That in any suit or action at law hereafter to be commenced or instituted in any county court of this state, the judges thereof, upon suggestion in writing by either of the parties thereto, supported by affidavit or other proper evidence, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county court of the county where such suit or action is depending, shall and may order and direct the record of their proceedings in such suit or rélion to be transmitted to the judges of any county court within the district for trial, and the judges of such county court, to whom the said record shall be transmitted, shall hear and determine the same in like manner as if such suit or action had been originally instituted therein; provided, nevertheless, that such suggestion shall be made as afcresaid before or during the term in which the issue or issues may be joined in the said suit or action: and provided also, that such further remedy may be provided by law, in the premises, as the legislature shall from time to time direct and enact.

III. And be it enacted, That if any party presented or indicted in any of the county courts of this state, shall suggest in writing to the court in which such prosecution is depending, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such adjoining county court shall hear and determine the same, in the same manner as if such prosecution had been originally inslituted therein: provided, that such further and other remedy may be provided by law, in the premiles as the legislature may direct and enact.

IV. And be it enacted, That if the attorney-general, or the prosecutor for the state, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indichment is or may be depending, that the flate cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally inhituted therein

V. And be it enacted, That there shall be a court of appeals, and the same shall be composed of the chief judges of the several judicial districts of the state, which faid court of appeals fliall hold, use and exercise, all and singular the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, heretosore held, used and exercised by the court of appeals of this state, and also the appellate jurisdiction heretofore used and exercited by the general court; and the faid court of appeals hereby established, shall sit on the western and eastern sheres for transacting and determining the business of the relapeclive shores, at such times and places as the future legislature of this Pate Il all direct and appoint, and any three of the said judges of the count of appeals thall form a quorum to hear and decide in a'l cases pending in said court; and the judge who has given a decision in any case in the county court, shall withdraw from the bench upon the deciding of the same case ; before the court of appeals; and the judges of the court of appeals may appoint the clerks of faid court for the western and eastern stores respectively, who shall hold their appointments during good behavior, removeable only for misbehavior on -conviction in a court of law; and in cafe of death, resignation, disqualistication, or removal out of the state, or from their respeclive shores, of either of the said clerks in the vacation of the said court, the governor, with the advice of the council, may appoint and commission a fit and proper perion to such vacant office, to hold the fame until the next meeting of the faid court; and all laws passed after tinis act shall take essell, shall be recorded in the office of the court of appeals of the wellern shore. VI. And be it enacted, That all and every part of the conflicution and form of government which relates to the court of appeals and the per eral court, or the judges the reof, or that is in any manner reputnut to, or inconsisent with, the provisions of this act, we and the same is bereby repealed, abrogated and annulled, upon the confirmation hereof; provided, that nothing berein contained shall be construed fo as to authorife the removal of the clerks of the respective county courts being in committeen at the time of the puffing of this act, in any other made or manner than that prescribed by the constitution and form of government.

VII. And be it enacted, That if this ast shall be confirmed by the general affembly, after tie next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the eculiitation and form of government di-
