Twenty Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the morning of the 22nd inst. a negro WOMAN, named LUCY, of a very dark complexion, about twenty five years of age, and rather a neat figure, speaks timidly and somewhat incoherently to be sulky; has a large timid eye, and frequently her jaws tied up for the tooth aches. She used to wear at home a dark blue striped linen jacket and petticoat; but having carried off all her clothes, she will likely change her dress. It is thought she is lurking about some gentleman's place in the vicinity of Baltimore, having many friends and acquaintances in the country. Any constable or other person bringing her home, shall have the above reward, and giving information where she can be had, shall have half the amount. She was formerly the property of Mr. Thomas Rutter, who sold her to Col. G. Clemm, and by me purchased of him.

VEREERIAL COMPLAINTS.
AS Dr. W. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine read or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.
—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.
N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Cumberland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover street, opposite the Rev. Mr. Otterbein's, near the Dutch church.

IN COUNCIL,
Annapolis, May 16, 1855.
Ordered, That the act to provide for the trial of felons in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals be published twice in each week, for the space of three months in the Maryland Gazette at Annapolis; the American, Telegraphic and the Federal Gazette at Baltimore; the National Intelligencer; the Republican Advocate and Bartgis's paper at Frederick Town; Creeves's paper at Hagers Town, and in Smith's and Cowan's paper at Eastern.
By order,
NINIAN PINNEY, Clerk.

AN ACT
To provide for the trial of felons in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals.

BE it enacted by the general assembly of Maryland, That this state shall be divided into six judicial districts in manner and form following: to wit: St. Mary's, Charles and Prince George's counties, shall be the first district; Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties, shall be the second district; Calvert, Anne Arundel and Montgomery counties, shall be the third district; Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties, shall be the fourth district; Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, shall be the fifth district; Baltimore and Harford counties shall be the sixth district; and there shall be appointed, for each of the said judicial districts, three persons of integrity and sound legal knowledge, residents of the state of Maryland, who shall previous to and during their sitting, as judges, reside in the district for which they shall respectively be appointed, one of whom shall be styled in the commission chief judge, and the other two associate judges, of the district in which they shall be appointed; and the chief judge, together with the two associate judges, shall compose the county courts in each respective district; and each judge shall hold his commission during good behavior, removable for misbehavior or conviction in a court of law, or shall be removed by the governor, upon the address of the general assembly, provided that two thirds of all the members of each house concur in such address; and the county courts so established, shall have, hold and exercise, in the several counties of this state, all and every the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, which the county courts of this state now have, use and exercise, and which shall be hereafter prescribed by law; and the said county courts established by this act shall respectively hold their sessions in the several counties at such times and places as the legislature shall direct and appoint, and the salaries of the said judges shall not be diminished during the period of their continuance in office.

II. And be it enacted, That in any suit or action at law hereafter to be commenced or instituted in any county court of this state, the judges thereof, upon suggestion in writing by either of the parties thereto, supported by affidavit or other proper evidence, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county court of the county where such suit or action is depending, shall and may order and direct the record of their proceedings in such suit or action to be transmitted to the judges of any county court within the district for trial, and the judges of such county court, to whom the said record shall be transmitted, shall hear and determine the same in like manner as if such suit or action had been originally instituted therein; provided, nevertheless, that such suggestion shall be made as aforesaid before or during the term in which the issue or issues may be tried in the said suit or action; and provided also, that such further remedy may be provided by law, in the premises, as the legislature shall from time to time direct and enact.

III. And be it enacted, That if any party presented or impleaded in any of the county courts of this state, shall suggest in writing to the court in which such prosecution is depending, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such adjoining county court shall hear and determine the same, in the same manner as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein; provided, that such further and other remedy may be provided by law in the premises as the legislature may direct and enact.

IV. And be it enacted, That if the attorney-general or the prosecutor for the state, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the state cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted thereina

V. And be it enacted, That there shall be a court of appeals, and the same shall be composed of the chief judges of the several judicial districts of the state, which said court of appeals shall hold, use and exercise, all and singular the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, heretofore held, used and exercised by the court of appeals of this state, and also the appellate jurisdiction heretofore used and exercised by the general court; and the said court of appeals hereby established, shall sit on the western and eastern shores for transacting and determining the business of the respective shores, at such times and places as the future legislature of this state shall direct and appoint, and any three of the said judges of the court of appeals shall form a quorum to hear and decide in all cases pending in said court; and the judge who has given a decision in any case in the county court, shall withdraw from the bench upon the deciding of the same case before the court of appeals; and the judges of the court of appeals may appoint the clerks of said court for the western and eastern shores respectively, who shall hold their appointments during good behavior, removable only for misbehavior on conviction in a court of law; and in case of death, resignation, disqualification, or removal out of the state, or from their respective shores, of either of the said clerks in the vacation of the said court, the governor, with the advice of the council, may appoint and commission a fit and proper person to such vacant office, to hold the same until the next meeting of the said court; and all laws passed after this act shall take effect, shall be recorded in the office of the court of appeals of the western shore.

VI. And be it enacted, That all past enactments of the constitution and form of government which relates to the court of appeals of the general court, or the judges thereof, or that in any manner repugnant to or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby repealed, abrogated and annulled, upon the confirmation hereof; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the removal of the clerks of the respective county courts being in commission at the time of the passing of this act, in any other mode or manner than that prescribed by the constitution and form of government.

VII. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as a constitution and form of government directed, that in such case this act, and the other laws and amendments of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall continue and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing in the said constitution and form of government to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Twenty Dollars Reward.
STRAYED or stolen from Montpelier on the 1st of July, a small HORSE, about 14 1/2 hands high, six years old, has a blaze face, his mane and tail mixed with grey hairs, trots hard, one of his legs a little hurt lately. For securing horse and thief I will give 20 dollars, for the horse five dollars, and all reasonable charges if brought home.
ISAAC VAN BIBBER.
June 5

Fifty Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the plantation of Mr. John Brown, in the neighbourhood of Centerville, Queen Anne's county, state of Maryland, on Saturday, the 15th ult. negro ISAAC, the property of the subscriber, living in the neighbourhood of Queen's Town, in said county. Isaac is a remarkable short lusty fellow, very black, with thick lips, and down look, about 24 or 25 years of age, is thought to have gone to Baltimore, where he has been several times. The clothing taken with him are chiefly linen of country manufacture. The subscriber will give twenty dollars for taking up and bringing him home safe and runaway if found in the county, thirty dollars if out of the county and in the state of Maryland, if secured in jail so that the owner may get him again, and the above reward if apprehended, and secured as aforesaid out of the state of Maryland.
ELEANOR TILGHMAN.
June 6

Fifty Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, from on board the brig Sophia, in October last, a bright n. white man, who calls himself WILLIAM HILL. He is 24 years of age, about 6 feet 1 inch high, has a large scar under his left eye, and a down look when spoken to—fond of spirituous liquors. As the above fellow has taken with him a number of clothes, it is not necessary to describe his dress, as it is probable the may change it.
Wm. H. HANSON,
No. 69, Cumberland Row.
N. B. I forewarn all persons from harboring or concealing said fellow, as being a slave.
December 3

Fifty Dollars Reward.
FOR apprehending and securing in any good negro JAMES, a slave, aged about twenty years or two years; he is stout and large bodied, nearly six feet high, dark brown complexion, small eyes, with long big feet; he licks a little in his articulation, particularly when he is in liquor, of which he is very fond. It is supposed he will assume the name of Harry Butler, and will show a short copy of the proceedings of the orphan's court of Anne Arundel county, in the state of Maryland, signed John Gassaway, register standing (in substance) that Harry Butler (or Henry Butler) was bound apprentice to Peter Hildge, until he arrived at the age of 21 years, it may be observed by examining the said short copy, that the term of apprenticeship expired on the 25th of December last. Harry Butler the real person mentioned in the proceedings of the orphan's court is now in Baltimore, and has in one of his arms an inveterate and incurable white swelling, of long standing, which makes the diseased arm much larger than the other, whereas negro James is sound in both of his. If James should be apprehended in the city of Baltimore, or the counties of Anne Arundel or Baltimore, twenty five dollars will be the reward. It is expected he will go to Lancaster, Little York or Carlisle, in Pennsylvania. He was seen at Canton races on Tuesday last.
Notice may be given by letter addressed to me to the care of McDonald and Hildge, merchants in Baltimore.
HENRY RIDGELY.
June 10

On the 2d of this month,
I GAVE my indentured servant, Christian Stubr, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.

ISAAC CAUSTEN
Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard & Baltimore-street.
To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.
To this extensive establishment, I Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

Land for sale.
A PART of that very valuable tract of LAND, formerly the property and residence of John Mercer Porter, deceased—situated in Baltimore county, in Black river neck, and about 14 miles from the city—containing 204 acres of strong fertile land, a great part of which is in a high state of cultivation; 14 acres in excellent timothy meadow, and about 20 acres more may be added at a very small expense.—The improvements are of wood, lately erected, and such as would suit for farm houses.—The part in wood, which is at least equal to the support of the place, abounds in lofty white oaks, interspersed with hickory. This property will be sold part for cash, and part for credit, or bartered for approved property in the city of Baltimore. It is presumed a purchaser will view the premises, therefore it is unnecessary to give any further description of them. Peregrine Porter, adjacent to the premises, will show them, and treat for the sale thereof—of, if more convenient to purchasers, apply to
