A remarkable COW
To be seen at Mr. John Herbert's No. 36, Market space.
THIS animal was taken wild in the Northern part of the state of New Hampshire, and it is supposed to be part moose. It has Six Legs, four of which resemble those of ordinary cattle, and are used for walking; the other two rise out of the fore shoulders in an erect posture, and can be folded upon the back, where here is a hollow which will hold two quarts of water. One of these legs is large and perfect, having the hoofs complete; the other is smaller, and has only half of the hoof.
Visitors will be gratified at the same time with music on the hand organ, accompanied with the shepherd's reel.
Also to be seen there,
Its calf,
Which is equally remarkable for the same phenomena. Price of admittance 12 1-2 cents.

Baltimore General Dispensary.

THE Managers intending to publish as speedily as possible, for the information of those requiring the aid of the institution, an accurate list of the contributors thereto for the present year; and finding their subscription papers without the names of many who are able and are probably willing to contribute, invite them to send their contributions to Mr. P. E.
THOMAS, the treasurer of the dispensary, at 106, Market-street. The payment of Five Dollars, entitles the giver to recognition, during one year, to the care of the institution, as many indigent sick as fall under his notice.
And as the managers are earnestly desirous that the benefits of the dispensary shall be fully extended to the indigent sick, they particularly request every person who may be informed of any neglect on the part of any attending physician, to give information thereof to any one of the managers, that strict investigation may be made into the same.
By order of the board,
