25 Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 7th inst. an indebted servant man, named LUCAS FISHER, by trade a Taylor. He had on when he went away, a blue cloth coat with yellow buttons, nankeen pantaloons and moccasins vest—he took with him, a drab frock coat faced with silk velvet of the same color. The aforesaid Fisher is about 20 years of age 5 feet 9 inches high, walks erect, has curly hair, a remarkable large head and a projected forehead, he is by birth a Wirthenburger, and when he speaks German you may discover it by his dialect; he speaks English tolerably well, but stammers a little when speaking—I have reason to believe he was persuaded off by a certain young woman who he was in the habit of going to see, who does not as I am informed bear the best character—I have reason to believe they have gone off together and taken the road to Reisterstown. I received information that two such persons were seen travelling on foot up that road on Sunday last—from what I can learn, the aforesaid young woman left her place where she lived on the same day, the aforesaid Fisher absconded. My reason to believe they have taken the road towards Reisterstown is that the young woman has relations living near Littlestown in Pennsylvania. Whoever takes up said runaway and secures him so that I can get him again shall have the above reward.
J. WINAND,
July 10 1851

Fifty Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the plantation of Mr. John Brown, in the neighbourhood of Centerville, Queen Anne's county, state of Maryland, on Saturday, the 15th ult. negro ISAAC, the property of the subscriber, living in the neighbourhood of Queen's Town, in said county. Isaac is a remarkable short lanky fellow, very black, with thick lips, and down look, about 24 or 25 years of age. He is thought to have gone to Baltimore, where he has been several times. The clothing taken with him are chiefly linen of country manufacture. The subscriber will give twenty dollars for taking up and bringing him home said runaway if found in the county, thirty dollars if out of the county and in the state of Maryland, if secured in jail so that the owner may get him again, and the above reward if apprehended, and secured as aforesaid out of the state of Maryland.

Twenty Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the morning of the 21st inst. a negro WOMAN, named LUCY, of a very dark yellow complexion, about twenty five years old, and rather a neat figure, speaks timidly and sometimes inclining to be sulky; has a large timid eye, and frequently her jaws tied up for the tooth aches. She used to wear at home a dark blue striped linen jacket and petticoat; but having carried off all her clothes, she will likely change her dress. It is thought she is lurking about some gentleman's place in the vicinity of Baltimore, having many friends and acquaintances in the country. Any constable or other person bringing her home, shall have the above reward, and on giving information where she can be had, shall have half the amount. She was formerly the property of Mr. Thomas Rutter, who sold her to Colonel Cleman, and by me purchased of him.

As the above fellow has taken with him a number of clothes, it is not necessary to describe his dress, as it is probable he may change it.

Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December, next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.
To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property nothing needs be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.
To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.
November 7 1851

On the 2d of this month,
I GAVE my indebted servant, Christian Stubb, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.

FRENCH NIGHT-SCHOOL.
Ecole Francaise.
NOTICE is hereby given, That I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and English Languages, intend to open the French School, in my commodious dwelling, on the 26th instant; and if 43 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend, Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical manner of Teaching.
AS I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.
A V. Dr. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine used or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from the various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.
—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in diet or diet.
N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Cumberland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover street, opposite the late Mr. Otterbein's, near the Dutch church.
