Columbian Inn—continued.
ISAAC CAUSTEN
 Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore street.
 To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.
 To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a general public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.
 October 27

On the 2d of this month,
 I GAVE my indentured servant, Christian Stuhr, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he has not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked with the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollecting. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.
THOS. OWEN WILLIAMS,
 Prince Georges County, near Bladensburg
 June 14

500 cents Reward.
 RAN AWAY from the subscriber, an apprentice boy to the nail making business, named EDWARD HALEY, about 14 years of age, has a remarkable hare lip, had on a coarse shirt and trousers, and his leather apron, he will tell lies in order to extricate himself at any time. Not long since he runaway and changed his name, in Adams county Pennsylv., under the name of Edward Haley, to John Chapman, but in all probability is tired of the name he assumed. I will give the above reward and all reasonable charges to whomsoever will deliver him to me living in Liberty street, Old Town, Baltimore.
JOHN YOUNG.
 N. B. Masters of vessels and others, are warned not to harbour or carry off said boy at their peril.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.
 A Dr. WARNER'S practice has been very extensively both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vendid or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
 Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.
 N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Curberland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover-street, opposite the Rev. Mr. Otisbain's, near the Dutch church.
