PROPOSAL,

BY THE AUTHOR, FOR PRINTING BY SUBSCRIPTION, Letters from the Mediterranean.

On various subjects, but more particularly Malta, Sicily, Herculanium, Pompci & Naples. BY A CINTLEMAN OF BALTIMORE, Recently in the service of the United States.

CONDITIONS. .I. The work will be comprised in one volume, 12ma-and will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained. II. It will be printed on good paper, and new type, with neatness and accuracy. III. Price to subscribers-handsomely bound -ONE DOLLAR, payable on delivery.

It is with emotions of diffidence, that the author of the above letters, submits them to public scrutiny; indeed he would not have presumed to do so, had not the solicitations and advice of some judicious friends tended to influence his determination, by a flattering opinion, that they will prove interesting and entertaining. The author has collected his materials from actual observations, during much leisure in the interim of suspended duty. To men of erudition, and even those of limited understandings and shallow penetration, the mutability of human affairs must be of moment; therefore, doubtless, a concise and comprehensive description of the celebrated Island of Malta, will prove interesting to most classes of people; for, though the situation be the same as when the unhappy Queen Dido visited it, the many calamities of revolution since that period, resulting principally from the invasion of Barbarians, together with the present happy estate of the Maltese, under the fostering care and protection of the British flag, all combine to render the history (which is indeed very little known in the Western World) of the Island momentous.— Through the mediums of print and tradition, most of us have some knowledge of the destructive effects of Vesuvi us, in the neighborhood of Naples. Here the eye of sensibility may bedew fallen greatness and beauty with tears of remorse.—Here the imagination is presented with a prospect equally dreary and melancholy; and deformed with such portentous aspects of barrenness and min, as devastation, in all its restments of fury, seldom furnishes for the meditation of desponding humanity. The ancient Cities of Herculanium and Pompei, were entirely covered over many centuries ago, by a massy body of Lava emited from the crater of this ever memorable Volcano; and with them, their inhabitants and wealth, the latter consisting chiefly in the works of the Sculptor and Painter; an immensity of which has recontly been developed and deposited in a Museum for the inspection of the curious. On the subject of those remains of profound antiquity, the author has been copious and precise in his remarks.
