PROPOSAL,

BY THE AUTHOR, FOR PRINTING BY SUBSCRIPTION, Letters from the Mediterranean,

On various subjects, but more particularly Malta, Sicily, Herculanium, Pumpei & Naples. BY A CENTLEMAN OF BALLINGRE. Recently in the service of the United States.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be comprised in one volume, 12mo.—and will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained. II. It will be printed on good paper, and new type, with neatness and accuracy.

III. Price to subscribers-handsomely bound -ONE DOLLAR, payable on delivery.

.It is with emotions of diffidence, that the author of the above letters, submits them to public scrutiny; indeed he would not have presumed to do so, had not the solicitations and advice of some judicious friends tended to influence his determination, by a flattering opinion, that they will prove interesting and entertaining. The author has collected his materials from actual observations, during much leisure in the interim of suspended duty. To men of erudition, and gren those of limited understandings and shallow penetration, the mutability of human affairs must be of moment; therefore, doubtless, a concise and comprehensive description of the celebrated Island of Multa, will prove interesting to most classes of people; for, though the situation be the same as when the unhappy Queen Dish visited it, the many calamities of revolution since that period, resulting principally from the invasion of Barbarians, together with the present happy estate of the Maltese, under the fostering care and protection of the British flag, all combine to render the history (which is indeed very little known in the Western World) of the Island momentous .- Through the mediums of print and tradition, most of us have some knowledge of the destructive effects of Vestivi us, in the neighborhood of Naples. Here the eye of sensibility may bedew fallen greatness and beauty with tears of remorse.—Here the imagination is presented with a prospect equally dreary and main loiv, and deformed with such portentous aspects of barrenness and ruin, as devastation, in all its vestments of fury, seldom furnishes for the meditation of desponding humanity. The incient Cities of Herculanium and Pumpei, were entirely covered over many centuries ago, by a massy body of Lava emited from the crater of this ever memorable Volcano; and with them, their inhabitants and wealth, the latter consisting chiefy in the works of the Scurptor and Painter; an immensity of which has recoulty been developed and deposited in a Museum for the inspection of the curious. On the subject of those remains of profound antiquity, the author has been copious and precise
