PROPOSAL,
BY THE AUTHOR,
FOR PRINTING BY SUBSCRIPTION,
Letters on the Neapolitan,
On various subjects, but more particularly Malta, Sicily, Herculanium, Pompei & Naples.
By a GENTLEMAN of BALTIMORE.
Recently in the service of the United States.

CONDITIONS.
I. The work will be composed in one volume, 12mo.—and will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained.
II. It will be printed on good paper, and new type, with neatness and accuracy.
III. Price to subscribers—handsomely bound—ONE DOLLAR, payable on delivery.

It is with emotions of diffidence, that the author of the above letters, submits them to public scrutiny; indeed he would not have presumed to do so, had not the solicitations and advice of some judicious friends tended to influence his determination, by a flattering opinion, that they will prove interesting and entertaining. The author has collected his materials from actual observations, during much leisure in the interim of suspended duty. To men of erudition, and even those of limited understanding, and shallow penetration, the mutability of human affairs must be of moment; therefore, doubts, conjectures, and comprehensive descriptions of the celebrated Island of Malta, will prove interesting to most classes of people; for, though the situation be the same as when the unhappy Queen Dido visited it, the many calamities of revolution since that period, resulting principally from the invasion of Barbarians, together with the present happy estate of the Maltese, under the fostering care and protection of the British flag, all combine to render the history (which is indeed very little known in the Western World) of the Island momentous.—Through the medium of print and tradition, most of us have a meagre knowledge of the destructive effects of Vesuvius, in the neighborhood of Naples. Here the eye of sensibility may behold fallen greatness and beauty with tears of remorse.—Here the imagination is presented with a prospect equally dreary and melancholy; and defamed with such portentous aspects of barrenness and ruin, as devastation, in all its vestments of fury, seldom furnishes for the meditation of desponding humanity. The ancient Cities of Herculanium and Pompei, were entirely covered over many centuries ago, by a massy body of Lava emitted from the crater of this ever memorable Volcano; and with them, their inhabitants and wealth, the latter consisting chiefly in the works of the Sculptor and Painter; an immensity of which has recently been developed and deposited in a Museum for the inspection of the curious. On the subject of those remains of profound antiquity, the author has been copious and precise in his remarks.

Those curious of feasting their curiosity by subscribing for a copy, are respectfully invited to call at either of the following places; where subscriptions will be thankfully received, viz:
The printing office of Messrs. Pechin & Frazer; and Cole & Hester; the book-stores of Messrs. Warner & H. near, South Butler, Sewer & Cole, George Han, P. B. near, S. S. Bonaldi, and Abraham Knight, Fell's Point, and the Coffee House.

25 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 7th inst. an indentured servant man, named LUCAS FISHER, by trade a Taylor. He had on when he went away, a blue cloth coat with yellow buttons, nankeen pantaloons and nankeen vest—he took with him, a drab frock coat faced with silk velvet of the same color.—The aforesaid Fisher is about 20 years of age 5 feet 9 inches high, walks erect, has curly hair, a remarkable large head and a projected forehead, he is by birth a Wirthenburger, and when he speaks German you may discover it by his dialect; he speaks English tolerably well, but stammers a little when speaking.—I have reason to believe he was persuaded off by a certain young woman who he was in the habit of going to see, who does not as I am informed bear the best character. I have reason to believe they have gone off together and taken the road to Hesterstown. I received information that two such persons were seen travelling on foot up that road on Sunday last—from what I can learn, the aforesaid young woman left her place where she lived on the same day, the aforesaid Fisher absconded. My reason to believe they have taken the road towards Hesterstown is that the young woman has relations living near Littlestown in Pennsylvania. Whoever takes up said runaway and secures him so that I can get him again shall have the above reward.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.
A very extensive and public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine used or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and success, after the failure of some of the ablest systems both in Europe and America. Complaints of the venereal passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. He uses a safe and simple method, and he is satisfied that a safe, effectual and a sedulous cure may be effected, without the use of mercury, or any other violent medicine.
N. B. Dr. W. was removed from Cum; Berlin R. Co. to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hester street, opposite the Rev. Mr. Otterbein's, near the Dutch church.

Stop the Horse Thief!

30 Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber on Sunday morning, the 23d of June, an indentured servant man, named JOHN JACOB HERMAN CRYSTOCK, a native of Holland, and arrived from Bremen in October last, in the ship Weser, captain Fretten, and took my horse, saddle and bridle with him, out of my stable. The said servant speaks the Holland & German languages incorrect, and very broken English; he is 26 years old, an apothecary by profession; is about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, of a dark complexion, his hair black, but mixed with grey, and is a little bow legged. Had on when he went away, a dark colored cloth coat, with gilt buttons; yellow nankeen trousers, a half worn black fur hat, &c. The horse he has exchanged since he left Baltimore, near Berlin, in Adams county, Pennsylvania. Whoever apprehends said horse thief and secures him in Baltimore jail, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid by HENRY KEERL,

THE Managers of this Lottery flatter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation chosen by the Commissioners appointed for building the Market-house, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage, to that part of the city, and to the country in general, as he begins to recommend it as an object worthy of their encouragement.

As the above Scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable Prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two Blanks to a Prize and all Prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the Lot, it is concluded without any deduction, the Managers entertain the greater hopes of such a speedy sale of the Tickets, as may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.
Such Prizes as shall not be demanded within six months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the Market-house.
For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the Managers have given bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of 30,000 dollars, for the due performance of the trust.
