On the 2d of this month,

I GAVE my indented servant, Christian Sp[illegible], permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he has yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broadcloth coat, striped shirt and trowsers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.

Accountant's Office.

THE PUBLIC are respectfully informed, that an office is now opened at No. 55, Water-street two doors from South Gay-street; where merchants and tradesmen may depend on having their Books posted and balanced with accuracy, neatness and dispatch—either by the job or year.

It is needless to enumerate all the advantages arising from such an institution, in so populous and commercial city as Baltimore—(many are seen evident)—suffice it to observe, that, merchants or tradesmen, who do or do not keep regular accounts, may derive great benefit therefrom.—the former, by having their books posted and balanced at a small expence—the latter by having their accounts regularly kept, may enjoy the satisfaction of knowing how their affairs stand—a satisfaction truly to be desired by every one engaged in business; as it frequently happens, that many a fortune is squandered away, and ruin received by inattention to, or neglect, or carelessness or incapacity to keep his accounts correct.

Discount of trade bills, accounts, arranged & finally adjusted.

Charter parties, agreements, bonds, powers of attorney, &c. &c. executed with neatness & every description of penmanship, accuracy and expedition executed.

Those gentlemen, who may please to encourage this institution by their support, are requested that every attention will be paid to their interest, and inviolable secrecy maintained.

PROPOSAL,
BY THE AUTHOR,
FOR PRINTING BY SUBSCRIPTION,
Letters from the Mediterranean,

Containing sketches, and more particularly of Malta, Sicily, Herculanium, Pompeii & Naples.

BY A GENTLEMAN OF FAIRFIELD,
Recently in the service of the United States.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be comprised in one volume, 12mo. and will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained.

II. It will be printed on good paper, and new type, with neatness and accuracy.

III. Price to subscribers—bound, neatly bound—One Dollar payable on delivery.

In the perusal of different detached sketches of the above letters, or books of travels, the reader may indeed be wonderfully pleased to do so, had not the solicitations and advice of our judicious friends tended to influence his determination, by a flattering opinion, that they will prove interesting and entertaining. The author has collected his materials from several publications, during such intervals as the attention of surrendered duty upon a man of enterprize, and the choice of limited circumstances, would permit; and the work will principally consist of the most interesting remarks, that could be collected from the most classic of peoples and places, that the world can boast of, since the more interesting principality from the invasion of Barbarians, together with the present happy estate of the Maltese, under the mild and benign protection of the British King, all combine to render the history (which is indeed very little known in the Western World) of the Island of importance.—Through the medium of a plain, and familiar style, most of the scenes described will be presented to the eye of the reader, in the true likeness of Nature. Here the eye of sensibility may behold all the greatness and beauty with which it is surrounded—here the imagination is presented with a prospect equally clear and melancholy; and delighted with such picturesque aspects of the present and past, is sometimes, in the sweet enthusiasm of contemplation, forgetful of the mention of despondency and misery. The ancient Cities of Herculaneum and Pompeii, were entirely covered over many centuries ago, by a mighty body of Lava emitted from the crater of that ever memorable Volcano; and with them its inhabitants and wealth, the latter consisting chiefly in the works of the Sculptor and Painter; an immensity of which have recently been discovered and deposited in a museum for the inspection of the curious. On the subject of these remains of profound antiquity, the author has been copious and precise in his remarks.

The gratification of feasting their curiosity by subscribing for a copy, are respectfully invited to call at one of the following places where subscriptions will be thankfully received, viz.

The printing offices of Messrs. Pechin & Fraser and Coale & Reese, the bookstores of Messrs. Warner & Hanna, Simon Butler, Scott & Cole, George Hill, P. Byrne, U. S. Legacie, and Augustus Bright, Fell's Point, and the Glee Hall.

ADVERTISIMENT.

WAS committed to the jail of Cecil county, state of Maryland, on the first day of June last, a Negro man by the name of GEORGE, but says that his name is Isaac, he is about 23 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, slender made, and very dark colour. He had on when committed, a pair of green cassimere pantaloons, an old check shirt, and an old hat, he has several other articles of wearing apparel. He was sold by a Mr. Hanson, near Rock Hall, on Eastern Shore of Maryland, and says he was brought about 150 miles from Harrisburgh, on the Susquehanna. Before he was delivered to me, I discovered that he pretended to run off, and that he was the property of Mr. Hanson, and that he was to meet him at the Court House of Queen Anne's county, on Wednesday the 14th day of August next, to receive his wages, &c. his discharge from service. I therefore request the owner to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away, or he will be discharged at the Court House of Queen Anne's, on Wednesday the 14th day of August next, according to law.

It is presumed that he is harboured by the free negroes of this town. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned from harbouring or concealing said mulatto, as he is a slave, and will be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure the said mulatto, so that I get him again.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.

AS Dr. WARNER's practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has restored the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.

—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

1000 Dollars Reward.

ON Saturday evening, between 6 and 10 o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit of the Bank of Maryland in this city, was forcibly opened by means of a false key of Mr. [illegible] paper and [illegible], chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought iron Chest, was taken therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most vigorous attempts to penetrate those vaults which they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other banknotes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 5 dollars each, of this office—the indorsements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Gay-street bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.
