- A fresh supply of GCTOR CUO! El's vegetable Elixir, is Just exercised and for sale by Gronge Manis, Dinggist, No. 140, Marketestreet.

A Renedy, far exceeding every other yet med, for consumptions, astumas, spitting of blood, coughs, shortness of breath, and every other specie of diseast to which that organ of life, the lunge, is perpetually expused. Complaints or the lungs have always been consideredane opprobria medicinæ for reprosch o the art of phyre, and it has long been a de sideratum in medical science, that a remedy ! might be devised which should check this owner of human life. The many thousands which year! fa i a sacrifice to this insidious disease. (pathis's palmonalis, or consumption of the lurge, has, ever since my acquaintance with Gisenzes, (which is almest thirty years) to exciecis my commissionation, that a large share of my time has been empio I in investigating the cause and cure of it; and, from my most unrimitted attention and constant research, I have the happeness to preclaim to the world, that, in my Vegerable Elixir, a speedy, safe, and effectual remedy is generally to be had. It is needless fer me to dwell too long on the praises of this medicine: those who use it will be immediately convinced of its superior virtues. in dispelling every distre eing sympton in the complaints above enumerated : these hectical heats will in a fim days be al aged, the night sweats will disapipia, the cough minimanes rapidle, and the patiens, who, previous to he n e of this menter e, were panting for breath, and fast approaching to dies lution, will find themselves resusitated in the most wexteded manner. So wenderful - James Bond ... - Jacob Hock, of Jacob, has been the relief, that, to express their gratitude, frequent solicitations have been made to have their testimonials made public of the unrivalied virtues of this ment ne: those who experience its beuign and salutary effects by a short triel, will need no other recommendation.

It is not pretended that this medicine will cure every disease to which safering humanite is liable, as is the case with most patient medicines: diseases which are as completely opposite as an acid and an alkali, they will assert, are all to be curch by one-simple remedy. Such week impositions have with much propriety brought most patent drugs into diere ute-But the Vegetahie Elixir is calculated f rone class of diseases only, viz. those to which the lungs are exposed, and I need not observe that they terminate in communitions. The precuraurs or harbingerg. of this hitherto intradable malady. (until the discovery of the Vegetable Elixir) are spitting of blood, pains in the breast and sides, coeghs, difficulty in breathing, and a gress number et cemplaints, which slender and delicate constitutions are so frequently lanoring under, which if attended to immediately on their commercement, will easily be noviated, and those in the last stages will be much alleviate! and many of them effectually cured.
