Pennsylvania House

MYER'S CITY TAVERN.

HE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he as removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's taven, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or bearders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store.-These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with tire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel. where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress. I now beg leave to inform my friends with considence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates ; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.

SOLOMON MYER. Washington July 18, 30th year of the Independence.
