

One of the cordon's of Bonaparte's legion of honor recently transmitted to the court of Berlin, was intended for Field Marshal Moelendorf, but was peremptorily rejected by that veteran warrior. The following letter has been circulated on the continent, as an accurate copy of the terms in which the Field Marshall repulsed that infamous attempt to associate him with the slaves, rebels, regicides, by whom the usurper is surrounded.

"SIRE—The rank I occupy, and the royal orders with which I have been decorated by your majesty's grand uncle and father of glorious memory, evince, that my services as an officer, and fidelity as a subject, were approved by those sovereigns. Since your majesty's reign I have done nothing to forfeit such an honorable opinion. What could therefore have induced the person at the head of the French government to insult me with his offer of having my name registered among the guilty ones of French rebels and regicides who supported that foreigner's usurpation—all members of his pretended legion of honor? My conscience, Sire, is clear; honor, loyalty and duty command me, therefore, to repulse with indignation such an outrage—such an attempt to disgrace the grey hairs of one of, Sire, your majesty's most faithful subjects.

(Signed) "MOELLENDORF,
Field Marshal."

"Berlin, April 28, 1805."

Extract of a letter from St. Etienne, received at Charleston, dated 15 July, 1805.

"It is reported, that there is a few Caterpillars near St. Mary's, but the season is so far advanced, I believe we are safe in half a crop this year, and may still hope for a whole one. The crop never looked better, seasons for cotton having been truly favorable."

FROM THE MEDITEPANEA.

Extract of a letter from an officer of the United States, at Syracuse, dat d' 11th May, 1805, to Commodore Preble.

"The commando is still at Malta—his health somewhat better. The Enterprise is expected every day from Venice, entirely rebuilt. Captain Barron, of the Essex, left this port yesterday for Malta, leaving a brig called the Franklin, which I believe he purchased in Trieste, intended for a bomb. A Mr. Vergogna, arrived here a few days ago from Alexandria, he says that Mr. Eaton had mutinied some days before (which was about the 4th of March), with 199 Christians, and the old Bastia with about 4000 Turks; their hopes were very sanguine to get safe and take possession of Derne and Bengara. We have had no official accounts from Mr. Eaton as yet, but it is rumoured, at Malta, that he is in Derne. The Argus is expected to bring us news soon"

Extract of a letter from an American officer, dated Malta, Aprt 7.

"A letter dated January 27th, was received a few days since from Captain Bainbridge by way of Tunis. The effects were all in good health notwithstanding their rigorous confinement. Arrangements are making for entertaining an extensive operation against the barbarians. It will be needless to assure you that the officers and crew of the squadron are full of zeal and ardour, that every thing will be done to insure success, and to restore our unfortunate prisoners to their country and friends."

Extract of a letter from an American officer at Malta, dat d' 1st 5, 1805.

"In my last I believe I informed you that Captain Eaton had gone to Alexandria in Egypt, to meet the ci-devant bashaw of Tripoli, brother to the reigning bashaw, since which the Argus has returned, and brings letters from Eaton. He was received with much attention, and appointed generalissimo by the bashaw; he is now at the head of about six thousand men on his march for Tripoli, a distance of 1000 miles, he is supposed by this time to be at Derne, a province of Tripoli, about half way from Alexandria."

"The Argus has been dispatched to Derne with provisions, and the commodore has sent to Messina to purchase field pieces, &c. Great hopes are entertained from this expedition. The reigning bashaw is much alarmed, and has put himself at the head of his army to oppose them."

"Commodore Barron continues very ill yet. The Constitution, Constellation, and brig Vixen are now off Tripoli, from which place we have just returned; the Essex and Enterprise at Venice and Trieste, expected here daily—the Congress and Nautilus at Syracuse, or on their passage to this place—the Syren cruising of Tangier."
