For Sale,

A TRACT OF LAND in Baltimore county, containing about six hundred acres; 4 hundred of which are supposed to be in wood. On this tract there is a handsome piece of meadow, and a young thriving apple orchard. This land is about 28 miles from the city of Baltimore, and not far from Colonel O'Donnell's country residence, purchased of Mr. William Buchanan.

A TRACT OF LAND containing about 300 acres, about 14 miles from the city of Baltimore, west of Randall's town. On this last mentioned tract there is a stone dwelling HOUSE, just finished, with convenient cellars, two rooms and a passage on the first floor three rooms and a passage on the second floor, and a garret; a new stone stable, corn house and coach house; an overseer's house with two rooms, lately repaired at the expense of two hundred dollars; kitchen and other out houses, an excellent apple orchard, with other good fruit trees, and good garden.

On both places there is water, not exceeded in the county; and good clover lots. No place can exceed them in respect of health. There is a proportionate part of woodland on the last place.

I will permit the purchasers to seed the ensuing fall, or I would seed for them. The dwelling house on the last mentioned farm might be immediately taken possession of by the purchaser. Presuming that no person will purchase without viewing the premises, I do not go into detail.

Both of the above places are convenient to mills; there is a mill not more than a quarter of a mile from the last mentioned place; a good neighbourhood, and the Episcopal and Presbyterian churches within five miles. An indisputable title will be given on the payment of the purchase money.

HIGH-WAY ROBBERY

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belong to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there. The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were 1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dolls. 1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500 1 do. of the same for 500 1 do. of the same for 450 1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington, Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Greetham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Suddert, and C. Smith, teller. There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He was on a dark blue or black coat, narrow pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes. Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

WILLIAM WHANN, Cashier of the Bank of Columbia, George-Town, July 31. (A3)

Pennsylvania House

AND MYER'S CITY TAVERN.

THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Way's printing-office, and centre market, opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store.

These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress. I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged; I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage. SOLOMON MYER, Washington July 18, 30th year of the Independence. July 31

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 7th of July, a Negro man named LIGHT. He is an able strong fellow, large bushy head, green eyes, much pitted with the small pox, very black, has a scar on his cheek, remarkable bad countenance, fond of company and strong drink. It is presumed that he is harbored by the free negroes of this town. Whoever takes up the said negro and lodges him in jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward and all reasonable charges paid by me. N. B. He follows the sea-faring business. HENRY FAIRFAX, for RUEBEN JOHNSON. July 18

1000 Dollars Reward.

ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault: all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indorsements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation. - About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery. - The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon. DAVID HARRIS, Cashier. July 29

15 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on Saturday evening last, a German Redemptioner named PHILIP HART; a well set, resolute fellow, about 5 feet 10 or 2 inches high, 18 or 19 years old, of a very dark complexion; he speaks broken English, and speaks fast when spoken to, and prefers speaking English to German. - The top of his head is bald, owing to a complaint when young, and the remaining hair on his head is black and very bushy. There is marked on one of his arms (not recollected which) with blue India ink, a cross, anchor and some other mark, not recollected. He has short fingers, and is a little knock-kneed and walks fast, and chews Tobacco. Had on, a dark olive coating round about jacket, without pockets and with holes in the elbows, and lined with green baize; a pair of dark mixed English pantaloons, with patches on the knees; a nearly new shirt, and an old hat, and took with him 2 pair of yellow nankeen pantaloons, a white cravat with worked corners, and torn; a cross bar blue and white silk handkerchief, a pair of ribbed white cotton hose, and an old pair of shoes. The above reward and all reasonable charges will be paid to any person that will deliver the above run away to the subscriber. MARTIN KRABER. N. B. The above Philip Hart went away in company with a German (belonging to Doctor Keerl) named John Hinsky, commonly called Honnes. It is probable they will make towards New-York or Georgetown. - All masters of vessels and others are warned against harboring or carrying them off at their-peril. August 5

FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL.

NOTICE is hereby given, That I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and English Languages, intend to open the FRENCH SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, on the 26th instant; and if 43 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical manner of Teaching. AS I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement. JOSEPH PAILLOTTET, South Charles-street. Oct-ber 26. Oct-1

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.

AS Dr. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicinal remedy or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with ease and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time. - As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, that they may be relieved from a description of their complaint. Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in diet as diet. N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Corn-berick Row to Conway street, near-door to the corner of Hanover-street, opposite the Bay-Dr. Otterbein's, near the Dutch church.
