march 28

On the 2d of this month, AVF my indented servant, Christian Stuhr, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abecond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. [He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trowsers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recolleded. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of filteen dollars.

From the above Scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale the drawing at an early day. Sau person will pald within sixty days from the completion of the drawing ; and such as may not be demanded within tweive months after, will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of $0000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions.

Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint ; and trizes in the Cathedral Lottery will be received an payment.

HIGH-WAY ROBBERY

T/ESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the fore-I noon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possessien, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higinbothom, cashier, in favor of Greetham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars; and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WINUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instartl; of his senses, the it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be vers accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good continuance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black evat, nanreen pantalouns, shoes, and a black hut. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplaces concealed, and will probably change his cturies.

person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand-Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

Pennsylvania House

AND MYER'S CITY TAVERN.

HE subscriber respectfully acquaints his I friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding ' house, and Mr. Woodward's taven, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or bearders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store-----These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress. I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence; that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my-elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.

SOLOMON MYER. Washington July 18, 30th year of the Independence.

Notice,

HOSE who yet remain indebted to the estate of Doctor Moores, deceased, are again earnestly solicited to settle their accounts immediately. Wishing to return the estate settled soon, and finding it impossible to call on evey delinquent, shall, in a very short time, place every unsettled balance in the hands of an officer, to be collected in the shortest manner. ### 1000 Dollars Reward.

N Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villians who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault : all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indorsements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for caculation. - About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.

15 Dollars Reward.

D AN AWAY from the subscriber on Satur-A day evening last, a German Redemptioner named PHILIP HART; a well set, resolute fellow, about 5 feet 1 or 2 inches high, 18 or 19 years old, of a very dark complexion : he speaks broken English, and speaks fast when spoken to, and prefers speaking English to German .-The top of his head is bald, owing to a complaint when young, and the remaining hair on his head is black and very bushy. There is marked on one of his arms (not recollected which) with blue India ink, a cross, anchor and some other mark, not recollected. He has short fingers, and is a little knock-kneed and walks fast, and chews Tobacco. Had on, a dark olive coating round about jacket, without pockets and with holes in the elbows, and lined with green baize; a pair of dark mixed English pantaloons, with patches on the knees; a nearly new shirt, and an old hat, and took with him 2 pair of yellow nankeen pantaloons, a white cravat with worked corners, and torn; a cross bar blue and white silk handkerchief, a pair of ribbed white cotton hose, and an old pair of shoes. The above reward and all reasonable charges will be paid to any person that will deliver the above run away to the subscriber.

MARTIN KRABER. N. B. The above Philip Hart went away in company with a German (belonging to Doctor Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any | Keerl) named John Hinsky, commonly called Honnes. It is probable they will make towards New-York or Georgetown. All masters of vessels and others are warned against harboring or carrying them off at their peril.
