On the 2d of this month,

I GAVE my indented servant, Christian Butler permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trowsers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.

AS DR. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public hospitals and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any heretofore rendered or known in Baltimore. He has also removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.

—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restrictive in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Cumberland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover-street, opposite the Rev. Mr. Otterbein's, near the Dutch church.

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between the town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, who then had the horse with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the Banks there.

Pennsylvania House

AND

MYER'S CITY TAVERN.

THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a new plate hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Way's printing office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store——

——These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and lodging rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated Bridge spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies a whole relief bourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a great measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania taverns rates; and in proportion as my elbow room is increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.
