MYER'S CITY TAVERN.

HE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's taven, in which he is now opening a complete botel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store.----- These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now crected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress. I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the con-

ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, " as forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, cliefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villians who perpetrated this during robbers, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the sault : all they effected was to bear off the Iron Clast above mertioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced isdes, though which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indorsements on them chircly fuled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation. - About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Criffith's bridge. There is no doubt but severol villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above remaid, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.
