TESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possessien, belonging to this institution. which he was laking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, *among which were

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

... As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the ter instantly of his senses, tho lit is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good codnienance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shees, and a black hat. He was on fout and alone at the time, but may have had acconplices concealed, and will probably charge his clothes.

Five Hundred Dellars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon. MYER'S CITY TAVERN. HE subscriber respectsully acquaints his I friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's taven, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-state.-These houses contain twenty-six lodg. ing rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of during, bar, assembly and culter rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this lictel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

-1 now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.

It is needless to enumerate all the advantages arising from such an institution, in so populous and commercial a city as Baltimore-(many are self evident)-suffice it to observe, that, merchants or tradesmen, who do or do not keep regular accounts, may derive great benefit therefrom-the former, by having their books posted and balanced at a small expence-the may enjoy the satisfaction of knowing how their affairs stand—a satisfaction truly to be desired by every one engaged in business; for, it is a melancholy truth, that many an honest & industrious tradesman, hath been reduced by his neglect, carelessness or incapacity to keep his accounts correct.

Disputed or unsettled accounts, arranged & finally adjusted.

Charter parties, agreements, bonds, powers of attorney, &c. &c. made out; writings of every description neatly, accurately and expeditiously comed. Those gentlemen, who may please to encou-
