shot a saw his father coming from his dwelling house, and waited bis concealment till he had got fourteen paces past the gin-house, then deliberatery took aim, through a crevice between the logs of the house, (horrible to relate) at his father! The shot penetrated his back and came out through his breast.

"A jury of inquest mas summoned early on the day following. The murderer vial excuses for his conduct. He was committed to Camden goal, together with his mother and brother, who were charged as accessaries to the murder.

" Mr. Maples wasone of the oldest settlers in this neighbourhood, and always supported the character of an honest, in--dustrious and good men."

We learn that appart of the collection of the curiosities collected by capt. Lewis on the Missouri, has reached Baltimore. Among these are a living animal, called the wild dog of the Pourie, and one magpie. Four magpies were sent, but one of them destroyed the other three.

Mr. Bowdorn, our minister to the court of Madrid, had arrived at 5t. Andero previous to the 20th June. (Ibid.)

A letter has been received from Cadiz; dated June 28, which is altogether silent as to the rumoured condemnation of one of our gun-boats. The Adriana, which brings this report, having arrived at New York after a passage of 40 days, renders the report very doubtful. This letter is from our Consul at Cadiz, and as it does not even mention the capture, as it is probable that her immediate restitution made that circumstance, in his opinion, the less important to be stated.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in St. . Mary's county, to his friend in this city, dated July 25, 1805.

On the 12th of this instant there was a negro woman delivered near this of a dead child. Its head, neck and ears resembled high; coffee and cocoa none. those of a squirrel, with a piece of loose skin on its forehead, that by pulling it assumder the teeth appeared resembling | buryport, 12 days from Havanna. Spoke, those of a squirrel; its body appeared August 9, in lat. 34, 44, long. 77, 1, like that of a flying squirrel, with memlegs, the body was covered with hair. Its! Messrs. Samuel Goodhue and Rathbone, tail resembled the tail of our common junr. wild-mubbits. The singular and disgusting production was viewed by a number i of respectable persons of both sexes.

A Camp Meeting

WILL be held on Abraham Jarets's gentlemen. land, near the Pennsylvania line, near the Friends Meeting House, by the name of Fawn Meeting House, Harford county, commencing the 29th of August, 1805. The most direct road from Baltimore is to the Cross Road, thence to friend Coxes' mill, thence to Marshall's tavern, thence Gladon's tavern, and then, to the appointed place.

Correspondence-A production, entitled "A CURIOUS VISION"-is handsomely written, in a style awfully grapd; but we conceive, it admits of an interpretation, more severe and gloomy, than is (in our opinion) justifiable. The individual whom its denuniciation would be most likely to injure, has long " borne the ills of life." .We believe him to be honest and industrious, and will not consent to aid in taking Moto him, his " cally bread."

We are under the necessity of informing Verilas, that his communication has been We delayed noaccidentally mislaid. ticing this, under a conception that it would be found.
