A fresh supply of OCTOR COOLEY's Vegetable Elixir, is just received and for sale by GEORGE MARIS, Druggist, No. 140, Market-street.

A Remedy, for exceeding every other yet used, for edusumptions, athmas, spitting of bloud, coughs, shortness of breath, and every other species of disease to which that organ of lite, the lungs, is perpetually exposed.

Complaints of the lungs have always been considered the opprobria medicina (or reproach to the art of physic) and it has long been a desideratum in medical science, that a remedy might be devised which should check this outlet of human life. The many thousands which yearly fall a sacrifice to this insidious disease, (phthisis pulmonalis, or consumption of the lungs, has, ever since my acquaintance with diseases, which is almost thirty years) so excited my commisseration, that a large share of my time has been employed in investigating the cause and cure of it; and, from my most unremitted attention and constant research, I have the happiness to proclaim to the world, that, in my Vegetable Elixir, a speedy, safe, and effecfual remedy is generally to be had. It is needless for me to dwell too long on the praises of this medicine; those who use it will be immediately convinced of its superior virtues in dispelling every distressing sympton in the complaints above enumerated; those hectical heats will in a few days be allayed, the night sweats will disappear, the cough diminishes rapidly, and the patients who, previous to the use of this medicine, were panting for breath, and fast approaching to dissolution, will find themselves resussitated in the most unexpected manners So wonderful has been the relief, that, to express their gratitude, frequent solicitations have been made to have their testimonials made public of the unrivalled virtues of this medicine; those who experience its benign and salutary effects by a short trial, will need no other recommenda-

It is not pretended that this medicine will cure every disease to which suffering humanity is liable, as is the case with most patent medecines; diseases which are as completly opposite se an acid and an alkali, they will assert, are all to be cured by one simple remedy. Such weak impositions have with much propriety brought most patent drugs into disrepute.-But the. Vegetable Elixir is calculated for one class of diseases only, viz. these to which the lungs are exposed, and I need not observe that they terminate in consumptions. The precursors or harbingers of this hitherto intractable malady, (until the discovery of the Vegetable Elixir) are spitting of blood, pains in the breast and sides, coughs, difficulty in breathing, and a great number of complaints, which slender and delicate constitutions are so frequently labor ing under, which if attended to immediately on their commencement, will easily be obviated, and those in the last stages will be much alleviated, and many of them effectually cured.— Price 75 cents per bottle.

HIGH-WAY ROBBERY

JESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the lody with a pistol, and robbed of a sun, of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will referer, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good codnienance, and had a genteel appearance. Pennsylvania House

MYER'S CITY TAVERN.

HE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occurred by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's taven, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store. - I hese houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and improportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged! I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage. SOLOMON MYER...
