A FRESH SUPPLY OF DOCTOR COOLEY's Vegetable Elixir, is just received and for sale by GEORGE MARIS, Druggist, No. 140, Market-street. A Remedy, far exceeding every other yet used, for consumption, asthma, spitting of blood, coughs, shortness of breath, and every other species of disease to which that organ of life, the lungs, is perpetually exposed.

Complaints of the lungs have always been considered the cypriotic medicine (or reprobate to the art of physic) and his long been a desideratum in medical science, that a remedy might be devised which should check this outlet of human life. The many thousands which yearly fall a sacrifice to this insidious disease, (pneumonia), or consumption of the lungs, has, ever since my acquaintance with diseases, which is almost thirty years, so excited my commissiioner, that a large share of my time has been employed in investigating the cause and cure of it; and, from my most unremitting attention and constant research, I have the happiness to proclaim to the world, that, in my Vegetable Elixir, a speedy, safe, and effectual remedy is generally to be had. It is needless for me to dwell too long on the praises of this medicine; those who use it will be immediately convinced of its superior virtues in dispelling every distressing symptom in the complaints above enumerated; those hectic heats within a few days he allayed, the night sweats will disappear, the cough diminishes rapidly, and the patients who, previous to the use of this medicine, were panting for breath, and fast approaching to dissolution, will find themselves resuscitated in the most unexpected manners. So wonderful has been the relief, that, to express their gratitude, frequent solicitations have been made to have their testimonials made public of the unrivaled virtues of this medicine; those who experience its benign and salutary effects by a short trial, will need no other recommendation.

It is not pretended that this medicine will cure every disease to which suffering humanity is liable; as is the case with most patent medicines; diseases which are as completely opposite as air and earth, and an alkali, will assert, are all to be cured by one simple remedy. Such weak impositions have with much propriety brought most patent drugs into disrepute.—But the Vegetable Elixir is calculated for one class of diseases only, viz, those to which the lungs are exposed, and I need not observe that they terminate in consumptions. The precursors or harbinger of this hitherto intractable malady, (until the discovery of the Vegetable Elixir) are spitting of blood, pains in the breast and sides, coughs, difficulty in breathing, and, a great number of complaints, which slender and delicate constitutions are so frequently laboring under, which if attended to immediately on their commencement, will easily be obviated, and those in the last stages will be much alleviated, and many of them effectually cured.—One cent per bottle.

July 19. 1aw.

On the 2d of this month,
I have my indentured servant, Christian Stuhl, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore. He was to return on the 5th, but as he never made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a tarter, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, as he was dressed in long blue broadcloth coat, striped shirt and trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are poor refleffed. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.

RAN away from the subscriber, from on board the brig Sophia, in October last, a bright mulatto man, who calls himself WILLIAM HILL, he is 24 years of age, about 6 feet 1 inch high; has a large star under his left eye, and a down look when spoken to—fond of spirituous liquors. As the above fellow has taken with him a number of clothes, it is not necessary to describe his dress, as it is probable he may change it.

RAN AWAY, on the 26th July, JAMES MORGAN, a handsome, well built, portly, black lad. He is not quite of a jet black; is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and aged about 20 years. He has a pleasant and sensible, smile, a fine set of teeth and a large scar on his left temple. He rocks a little in his walk. He is respectful and complaisant. James is an excellent house-keeper, and a pretty good cook; his attention has latterly been devoted to the work of a farm. He can read and write; he is, indeed, fond of reading, and ambitious to improve his mind.

He was seen in Baltimore 2d August, inst.

His mother (whose letters have seduced him)

lives in Easton, on Eastern shore;—he will probably make his mother, though he may perhaps take a circuitous route.
