A check of the Union Bank, on the lark of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higisbothem, casifica, in favor of Greetham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Feter instantly of his senses, the it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As for as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good codntenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a Cark blue or black cout, numbers pantalcons, shoes, and a black i at. He was on first and alone at the time, but mar have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousard Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the mency, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon. Cashier of the Bank of Columbia. George-Town, July 31.

Pennsylvania House

MYER'S CITY TAVERN

HE subscriber respectfully acquaints l.is friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his ald tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Lennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a beateing house, and Mr. Woodward's taven, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capital, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messes. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's sbook-ster .--These houses contain twenty-six loceing rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-roo -, has increased, my dispesition to please shall be enlarged : I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage
